City Police File Charges In Stolen Check Operation

Circleville police Sgt. Larry Ward's Market in the amount of $189.54.

The two checks were written on the Erie Lackawanna Railway Company of Cleveland and were only two of a large number passed in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

ON Nov. 23, North Olmstead police notified Sgt. Pontious that they had Queen in custody on an old forgery warrant and he was in possession of identification used to cash the checks in Circleville.

Pontious took two witnesses to North Olmstead where they identified Queen in a lineup as the man who cashed the checks in Circleville.

At the time of his arrest, Queen was in possession of a stolen car, checks stolen from The Erie Lackawanna Railway Co. and the Faler Feed Mill in Lithopolis plus a stolen Ohio operator's license and several automobile titles taken in Alabama and Georgia.

Identification used to cash the checks in Circleville was taken during an armed robbery of a store in Louisville, Ky., August 25.

The Slazak woman was identified through photographs and other evidence and North Olmstead police expect to have her in custody within several days.

They will be returned to Circleville as soon as disposition is made on the charge in North Olmstead.

Economic Indicators Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's index of leading economic indicators rose moderately last month after a small decline in September, the Commerce Department reports.

The index increased by 0.6 per cent in October, the department said Tuesday, but revised data for September showed that the originally reported 0.4 per cent increase was changed to a 0.2 per cent decline because of new data.

Three of the eight economic indicators available for October — industrial materials prices, contracts and orders for plant and equipment — and stock prices showed improvement. The gain in these indicators helped to offset unfavorable movement in the others.

Showing declines were indicators for new orders for durable goods, building permits, the ratio of prices to labor costs and unemployment insurance claims.

State Sewer Fund Shares Not Enough?

Whitman Says He's Disappointed In Nixon Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio cities are to get $306.8 million in federal funds to build sewers and sewage treatment plants between now and 1974, but Ohio Environmental Protection Agency chief Ira Whitman says it's not enough.

The money is Ohio's share of $5.3 billion the Nixon administration announced Tuesday it was releasing for such construction, less than half the amount authorized by Congress, which passed the waste treatment bill over President Nixon's veto Oct. 18.

There appeared to be some chance a state or states might sue the federal government for withholding money appropriated by Congress, and Whitman indicated Ohio could be one of them.

"It's something we have to explore," he said. "It's my feeling that the states must act together in shaping future federal-state relations in this field."

"We would be very interested in working with other states to strengthen the states' position in this whole business," he added.

Whitman said he was "disappointed, but not surprised" that Nixon had decided not to release all the money allocated by Congress.

"It puts the whole program in a different light," he said. "This program is a major revision. There are a lot of new requirements, and we're gearing up now to carry out the state's responsibility."

"It's been a great burden on us. We go through all this and then we see the funds are not being to be available to do the job," he said.

Stamm was placed on suspension by council following his arrest and indictment. He was accused of taking $600 from the kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Linnhart July 9 during a burglary investigation.

They charged he took the money from a cookie jar while they, accompanied by Ptl. Earl Bolen, inspected the cellar. Neither could testify to seeing the money taken or remember the exact amount.

Ptl. Bolen denied he and the chief were separated during the investigation.

The council suspension forbids Stamm's reinstatement until he is found innocent.

Warren County Prosecutor James Ruppert will leave office in January. There was no word on a new trial.

Thieu Wants Summit Meet With Nixon On Cease-Fire

Death Penalty Vote Likely Soon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A measure to retain the death penalty while still possibly meeting U.S. Supreme Court restrictions passed a Senate committee Tuesday and headed for a floor vote, possibly next week.

The House State Government Committee, meanwhile, postponed, at least until today, action on a resolution that would pave the way for a statewide vote in May on a state lottery.

Both houses of the "lame duck" 90th General Assembly were scheduled to meet at 1:30 p.m. today, then recess until next week. Some committee meetings will be held prior to the recess.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, by a 7-0 vote, recommended passage of a criminal code revision bill that would allow Ohio to retain the death penalty on a restricted basis.

Under the bill, persons charged with murder would stand trial before a jury to determine guilt or innocence and whether there was one or more of nine "aggravating" factors involved in the crime.

If a guilty verdict was returned with aggravation found, a three-judge panel would then determine if one or more of three "mitigating" factors was involved. If they found no mitigating factors, the death penalty would be mandatory.

Rep. Alan Norris, R-59 Westerville, main sponsor of the measure, warned that the Senate version may not set too well with the House. He said the concept of splitting a trial into two parts had earlier been rejected in the lower chamber as "too cumbersome."

Sen. Max Dennis, R-10 Wilmington, the committee chairman, who was earlier rebuffed in his effort to abolish capital punishment, said the measure approved was aimed at getting around the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision.

The court, earlier this year,

Police Chief Remains Suspended

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Carlisle Police Chief Larry Stamm remained suspended today after a Warren County Common Pleas jury was unable to reach a verdict in his trial for grand larceny.

Stamm and two other officers have filed suit against the Carlisle village council charging them with harassment of the police department.

Stamm was placed on suspension by council following his arrest and indictment. He was accused of taking $600 from the kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Linnhart July 9 during a burglary investigation.

They charged he took the money from a cookie jar while they, accompanied by Ptl. Earl Bolen, inspected the cellar. Neither could testify to seeing the money taken or remember the exact amount.

Ptl. Bolen denied he and the chief were separated during the investigation.

The council suspension forbids Stamm's reinstatement until he is found innocent.

Warren County Prosecutor James Ruppert will leave office in January. There was no word on a new trial.

The jury was deadlocked 10-2 for acquittal, court officials said.

"We were running way behind on our revenues in terms of what should have been filed, and it was really concerning us."

"We wondered if our estimates were behind or our figures were wrong. But it turns out they were just about right," he said.

Most Ohioans don't have the option of holding back their income tax payments, since they're withheld automatically said capital punishment, with certain exceptions, represented "cruel and unusual punishment" and violated the U.S. Constitution.

The lottery proposal, as well as another proposed constitutional amendment providing for the joint election of the governor and lieutenant governor, were scratched from last May's ballot by the Ohio Supreme Court.

A revision of the governor- lieutenant governor proposal was also heard briefly Tuesday night by the State Government Committee. Chairman Rep. Robert Manning, R-94 Akron, farmed the issue out to subcommittee, saying he expected no action on it until next week.

This fiscal year its spending is targeted at $78.9 billion, nearly one-third of all federal outlays and more than the defense budget for the first time in HEW's 19-year history.

Richardson set out to reform the system, cut the red tape surrounding more than 250 categorical programs and make them cost-effective.

However, he also sought to protect the welfare of his department's 110,000 employees.

When the White House ordered a 5 per cent slash in the federal payroll, the Office of Management and Budget, directed by Weinberger, set HEW's quota at 10,000.

Richardson won a major concession to make the cuts conditional on a pending transfer of several federal hospitals to local jurisdictions.

Weinberger, who can expect to face stiff congressional grilling in attempts to justify cuts in programs, has asked HEW Undersecretary John G. Vene-

3 Americans Crash Victims

Japanese Airliner Toll Reaches 61

MOSCOW (AP) — Three Americans were among 61 persons killed in the crash of a Japanese airliner as it was taking off from Moscow for Japan Tuesday night, Japan Air Lines announced today.

JAL said 14 Japanese and a New Zealander survived the crash and were being treated at Moscow hospitals.

A 16th survivor was reported earlier but a check of hospitals produced only 15 persons. The airline said the 16th person was missing and presumed dead.

The Americans were listed as C. Gerbie, M. Bretter and Sackheim. The airline said Bretter and Sackheim boarded the flight in Copenhagen and Gerbie boarded in Moscow.

Bretter was believed to be Monroe S. Bretter, president of the Bretter International Sales Corp. of New York, who a Japanese firm in Nagoya said was expected on the flight.

A U.S. Embassy official reported earlier that two Americans survived, but this proved to be erroneous.

The four-engine DC8 was on a trans-Siberian flight from Copenhagen to Tokyo. It had climbed to about 400 feet after taking off, then plunged downward and crashed about 150 yards from the end of a runway at Sheremetyevo airport.

Key parts of the proposed legislation—almost identical to a bill which died in committee in the previous session—call for disclosure of personal financial worth and sources of income or both elected and appointed officials, he said. It also sets up strict rules against conflict of interest of all public employees.

To enforce provisions of the proposed measure, Gilligan said, our state-level ethics committees and a similar committee in each county would be established. Each committee would consist of six members, three each from the two major parties, named to staggered six-year terms.

One of the top priorities from the governor's office during the 110th General Assembly will be enactment of a tough conflict of interest law for public officials, Gov. John J. Gilligan said today.

Saigon Sees Talk Needed Before Signing

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu is asking President Nixon to meet with him to discuss face-to-face the problems of achieving a Vietnam peace settlement, diplomatic sources said today.

Diplomatic and South Vietnamese sources said the proposal would be presented to Nixon later today by Nguyen Phu Duc, sent by Thieu to Washington to meet with the U.S. President.

There was no official comment from the presidential palace or the foreign ministry. But earlier in the day Foreign Minister Tran Van Lam told newsmen who asked if the two presidents might meet:

"This summit meeting between the two leaders at any moment is always necessary in order to coordinate their policies. And I think it is always necessary for them to meet. It depends on the schedule of the two leaders, whether they have the time. But there's nothing planned at this moment."

South Vietnamese sources said Duc would propose the summit meeting be held in December and that it take up the postwar shape of Indochina in addition to discussing a peace settlement.

No site for the proposed meeting was mentioned. Previous U.S.-Vietnamese summit meetings have been held in Honolulu and Manila.

For the past week, both the official Saigon radio and the newspaper Tin Song, which is controlled by the presidential palace, have been indicating that Thieu wants to put his case before Nixon personally.

Thieu has been reported distrustful of the efforts of U.S. presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger, who has been negotiating cease-fire terms with the North Vietnamese in Paris and who conferred with Thieu in Saigon in August and again in October.

Red Rocket Being Used In Ireland

DUBLIN (AP) — The Irish and British governments pressed exhaustive investigations today into the introduction of Soviet-made rockets into the fighting in Northern Ireland.

Irish security forces also were on a special alert for demonstrations by supporters of the outlawed Irish Republican Army. More than 60 demonstrators were arrested in Dublin Tuesday night, new government legislation aimed at the IRA was to be debated in the Dail, the Irish parliament, and the hunger strike of jailed IRA leader Sean MacStiofain provided another rallying cause.

Using small, bazooka-type Soviet rockets for the first time, the IRA made 10 rocket attacks in Northern Ireland Tuesday, killing a British soldier and a police constable and wounding 13 soldiers. The rockets in four of the attacks were fired from the republic.

Three other deaths on Tuesday — a soldier shot accidentally during operations and two IRA suspects blown up by their own bomb — raised the confirmed death toll to 645 in more than three years of communal warfare in the North.

The rocket attacks were the heaviest outburst of IRA firepower in five months. Later in the day British troops in Londonderry captured one of the rocket launchers, the first such Soviet weapon seized in Northern Ireland. Authorities were working on the theory that the IRA had received a consignment of Soviet weapons in the last week and that this could provide the firepower for major trouble in the next few days.

Ohio Income Tax Take In Post-Election Surge

By DAVID TOMLIN Associated Press Writer COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tax officials have been worrying all year that they expected too much from the state income tax, but revenues have increased so sharply since election day they think their worries are over.

Ohio Tax Commissioner Robert Kosydar believes many individuals and even some small corporations were holding back their tax payments in hopes voters would repeal the income tax Nov. 7, even though they would have been liable for 1972 taxes anyway.

But Ohioans overwhelmingly endorsed continuation of the .5 to 3 per cent personal and 1 to 8 per cent corporation income taxes, and the result has been a dramatic increase in payments this month.

"It's more than you really can believe," Kosydar said.

"We were running way behind on our revenues in terms of what should have been filed, and it was really concerning us."

"We wondered if our estimates were behind or our figures were wrong. But it turns out they were just about right," he said.

Most Ohioans don't have the option of holding back their income tax payments, since they're withheld automatically from their paychecks. But a substantial number have income not subject to withholding.

People in this situation are required to make quarterly installments on their expected tax share, and payments in this category were running way behind what the state estimated they should have been. Now, Kosydar says, they are approaching predictions.

Kosydar said receipts were running about $10 million behind the estimates through October. This month alone they are $7 million ahead, which leaves a $3 million deficit to be made up in December.

"I expect we'll be right on the mark through December," Kosydar said. He said revenue in calendar 1972 will be about $350 million for the personal income tax and $260 million for corporations.

Nixon Holds Pollution Funds Back

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, who tried unsuccessfully to veto an $18 billion authorization of federal aid to waste treatment facilities, has stuck to his guns and ordered that only half the authorized amount be distributed.

Nixon's action, announced Tuesday by Environmental Protection Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus, raised the possibility that one or more states might sue the federal government for the full authorization. Congress passed the authorization on Oct. 18 over Nixon's veto.

The breakdown on expenditures listed by Ruckelshaus included:

—$2 billion was allotted to the states as grants for construction of municipal waste treatment plants in fiscal 1973, instead of the $5 billion authorized by Congress, and $3 billion for fiscal 1974, instead of $6 billion authorized.

—$1.9 billion was allotted or reimbursement of federal aid or municipal projects begun between June 30, 1966 and July 1, 1972, some $100 million short of the congressional authorization.

Helpful Hunter Becomes Robber

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Trumbull County sheriff's deputies were looking today for the unidentified man who took another hunter's buck at gunpoint near here, authorities said.

Leonard Spahr, 58, of Warren said he shot the 200-pound buck, and then was approached by another hunter who offered to help dress the kill. Eventually, the other man helped Spahr carry the carcass out of the woods to their cars, Spahr said.

At the cars, however, Spahr said the other man poked a shotgun in his face, loaded the deer into his own car and drove away.

Weinberger To Wield Axe Instead Of Knife At HEW?

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nomination of budget-minded Caspar Weinberger as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare signals hard times for the government's most expensive bureaucracy.

He undoubtedly shares the fat-trimming goals of President Nixon and outgoing HEW Secretary Elliot L. Richardson. Weinberger has been director of the Office of Management and Budget.

But where Richardson would have used a scalpel, top-ranking HEW officials fear Weinberger may wield an axe.

Earlier this month the President singled out HEW as a department he feels is "too fat, too bloated."

The HEW budget has been increasing at an average 15 per cent a year over the last decade, more than twice the rate of the Gross National Product. This fiscal year its spending is targeted at $78.9 billion, nearly one-third of all federal outlays and more than the defense budget for the first time in HEW's 19-year history.

Richardson set out to reform the system, cut the red tape surrounding more than 250 categorical programs and make them cost-effective.

Thieu has been reported distrustful of the efforts of U.S. presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger, who has been negotiating cease-fire terms with the North Vietnamese in Paris and who conferred with Thieu in Saigon in August and again in October.

Irish security forces also were on a special alert for demonstrations by supporters of the outlawed Irish Republican Army. More than 60 demonstrators were arrested in Dublin Tuesday night, new government legislation aimed at the IRA was to be debated in the Dail, the Irish parliament, and the hunger strike of jailed IRA leader Sean MacStiofain provided another rallying cause.

Using small, bazooka-type Soviet rockets for the first time, the IRA made 10 rocket attacks in Northern Ireland Tuesday, killing a British soldier and a police constable and wounding 13 soldiers. The rockets in four of the attacks were fired from the republic.

Three other deaths on Tuesday — a soldier shot accidentally during operations and two IRA suspects blown up by their own bomb — raised the confirmed death toll to 645 in more than three years of communal warfare in the North.

The rocket attacks were the heaviest outburst of IRA firepower in five months. Later in the day British troops in Londonderry captured one of the rocket launchers, the first such Soviet weapon seized in Northern Ireland. Authorities were working on the theory that the IRA had received a consignment of Soviet weapons in the last week and that this could provide the firepower for major trouble in the next few days.

State Sewer Fund Shares Not Enough?

Whitman Says He's Disappointed In Nixon Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio cities are to get $306.8 million in federal funds to build sewers and sewage treatment plants between now and 1974, but Ohio Environmental Protection Agency chief Ira Whitman says it's not enough.

The money is Ohio's share of $5.3 billion the Nixon administration announced Tuesday it was releasing for such construction, less than half the amount authorized by Congress, which passed the waste treatment bill over President Nixon's veto Oct. 18.

There appeared to be some chance a state or states might sue the federal government for withholding money appropriated by Congress, and Whitman indicated Ohio could be one of them.

"It's something we have to explore," he said. "It's my feeling that the states must act together in shaping future federal-state relations in this field."

"We would be very interested in working with other states to strengthen the states' position in this whole business," he added.

Whitman said he was "disappointed, but not surprised" that Nixon had decided not to release all the money allocated by Congress.

"It puts the whole program in a different light," he said. "This program is a major revision. There are a lot of new requirements, and we're gearing up now to carry out the state's responsibility."

"It's been a great burden on us. We go through all this and then we see the funds are not going to be available to do the job," he said.

Three of the eight economic indicators available for October — industrial materials prices, contracts and orders for plant and equipment — and stock prices showed improvement. The gain in these indicators helped to offset unfavorable movement in the others.

Showing declines were indicators for new orders for durable goods, building permits, the ratio of prices to labor costs and unemployment insurance claims.

Warren County Prosecutor James Ruppert will leave office in January. There was no word on a new trial.

The jury was deadlocked 10-2 for acquittal, court officials said.

"We were running way behind in our revenues in terms of what should have been filed, and it was really concerning us."

"We wondered if our estimates were behind or our figures were wrong. But it turns out they were just about right," he said.

Most Ohioans don't have the option of holding back their income tax payments, since they're withheld automatically from their paychecks. But a substantial number have income not subject to withholding.

People in this situation are required to make quarterly installments on their expected tax share, and payments in this category were running way behind what the state estimated they should have been. Now, Kosydar says, they are approaching predictions.

West Point Military Ghost Just Navy Skulduggery

ANAPOLI, Md. (AP) — A Naval Academy midshipman says the ghost which has been appearing in a West Point dormitory this fall is nothing more than a hoax he helped to pull off in advance of the Army-Navy football game.

William Gravell, a midshipman officer and member of the brigade staff at Annapolis, told newsmen Tuesday he fashioned the trick with the aid of a flashlight, some cheesecloth and a photographic slide.

It was all designed, he said, to "make Army look stupid."

"I wanted something they wouldn't be able to pin on us, but something that with the tradition-bound atmosphere they have at West Point they would readily swallow. Well, they fell for it — fell much further than I would have imagined."

The West Point ghost story began this fall when two plebes reported that on several occasions an apparition of a 19th century cavalryman, wearing a handle-bar moustache and carrying a musket, had appeared in their room.

The resulting stir caused the military academy to put the room off limits with a spokesman explaining that "there was too much traffic. Their fellow cadets were bringing in cameras and tape recorders, and the occupants weren't getting any studying done."

According to Gravell, he and another midshipman, who would not allow his name to be revealed, journeyed to West Point several times to bring the ghost to life.

A midshipman with a pencil-moustache was dressed in an old mock military uniform and photographed, "deliberately underexposed so the picture would look dim and milky."

3 Americans Crash Victims

Japanese Airliner Toll Reaches 61

MOSCOW (AP) — Three Americans were among 61 persons killed in the crash of a Japanese airliner as it was taking off from Moscow for Japan Tuesday night, Japan Air Lines announced today.

JAL said 14 Japanese and a New Zealander survived the crash and were being treated at Moscow hospitals.

A 16th survivor was reported earlier but a check of hospitals produced only 15 persons. The airline said the 16th person was missing and presumed dead.

The Americans were listed as C. Gerbie, M. Bretter and Sackheim. The airline said Bretter and Sackheim boarded the flight in Copenhagen and Gerbie boarded in Moscow.

Bretter was believed to be Monroe S. Bretter, president of the Bretter International Sales Corp. of New York, who a Japanese firm in Nagoya said was expected on the flight.

A U.S. Embassy official reported earlier that two Americans survived, but this proved to be erroneous.

The four-engine DC8 was on a trans-Siberian flight from Copenhagen to Tokyo. It had climbed to about 400 feet after taking off, then plunged downward and crashed about 150 yards from the end of a runway at Sheremetyevo airport.

CONGRESSMAN Bill Harsha and Ohio Director of Agriculture Gene R. Abercrombie have requested that Earl Butz, United States Secretary of Agriculture, declare Ohio a disaster area...

The action has been taken in order that Ohio farmers be eligible for emergency relief and emergency loan funds through the Farmers Home Administration... Statewide estimates are that less than 40 per cent of Ohio's corn and soybeans have been harvested and heavy fall rains have made a quagmire of the fields...

Many farmers are faced with contractual obligations wherein they have contracted soybeans for Dec. delivery and cannot possibly deliver...

If the state is declared a disaster area, the FHA could make emergency loans to farmers with severe losses.

Interest Conflict Law Is Planned

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — One of the top priorities from the governor's office during the 110th General Assembly will be enactment of a tough conflict of interest law for public officials, Gov. John J. Gilligan said today.

Key parts of the proposed legislation—almost identical to a bill which died in committee in the previous session—call for disclosure of personal financial worth and sources of income or both elected and appointed officials, he said. It also sets up strict rules against conflict of interest of all public employees.

To enforce provisions of the proposed measure, Gilligan said, our state-level ethics committees and a similar committee in each county would be established. Each committee would consist of six members, three each from the two major parties, named to staggered six-year terms.

Three other deaths on Tuesday — a soldier shot accidentally during operations and two IRA suspects blown up by their own bomb — raised the confirmed death toll to 645 in more than three years of communal warfare in the North.

Ohio Income Tax Take In Post-Election Surge

By DAVID TOMLIN
Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tax officials have been worrying all year that they expected too much from the state income tax, but revenues have increased so sharply since election day they think their worries are over.

Ohio Tax Commissioner Robert Kosydar believes many individuals and even some small corporations were holding back their tax payments in hopes voters would repeal the income tax Nov. 7, even though they would have been liable for 1972 taxes anyway.

But Ohioans overwhelmingly endorsed continuation of the 5 to 3 per cent personal and 1 to 8 per cent corporation income taxes, and the result has been a dramatic increase in payments this month.

"It's more than you really can believe," Kosydar said.

"We were running way behind in our revenues in terms of what should have been filed, and it was really concerning us."

"We wondered if our estimates were behind or our figures were wrong. But it turns out they were just about right," he said.

Most Ohioans don't have the option of holding back their income tax payments, since they're withheld automatically from their paychecks. But a substantial number have income not subject to withholding.

Boy's Complaint Brings Lawsuit By Price Panel

WEST BABYLON, N.Y. (AP) — Antoinette Malachowsky learned last April from her son John, now 13, that he planned to complain to the Price Commission about the four-cent increase in the cost of paint for his model airplanes and rockets.

She promptly told him, "John, I wouldn't bother."

But John, whose $2 weekly allowance was feeling the pinch, replied, "I'm going to do it."

The eighth-grader's complaint resulted Tuesday in a $150,000 suit by the Justice Department against Testor Corp. of Rockford, Ill., a hobby products manufacturer.

The complaint against Testor alleges that last March 1 the company increased its price on Pla Enamel 26 per cent, from 34 cents to 43 cents a jar, and on April 1, in violation of price from 69 cents to 79 cents a can, on economic stabilization program.

An official of Testor, operations manager Charles Miller, said the firm followed Price Commission guidelines in raising prices and that the increase was the first for the paint in 20 years.

Young John, who has been constructing plastic model airplanes since he was eight and models with engines since he was 10, said he was "really surprised" by the government's action.

"It just didn't seem like they'd go through the trouble of prosecuting a case over four cents," he said.

The suit in U.S. District Court in Chicago seeks restitution, through lowering of prices as long as necessary to refund the estimated $150,000 in excess charges to Testor customers. It also seeks a penalty of $2,500 for each violation of the Economic Stabilization Act. Also named in the suit was Jupiter Industries of Chicago, 80 per cent owner of Testor.

The recreation for the evening will be provided by Paul Dumke, Barbara Bolender, Diana Lands and John Dawson.

Man Cited With DWI After Wreck

Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz charged George F. Neal, 52, Route 1 Amanda, with driving while intoxicated after Neal destroyed the left side of his car, 225 feet of farm fence and an electric pole 6:15 p.m. Tuesday.

According to the report, Neal was headed west on the Ashville-Fairfield Rd. and had just passed through the intersection of the E. Ringgold-Northern Rd. when his car dropped off the right side of the roadway.

The car continued off the right side ripped out 225 feet of fence owned by Ernest Barr, Route 2, Ashville, and slammed into an electric pole.

He was treated at Berger Hospital for a scalp laceration.

Man Charged With TV Set Burglary

Paul Downard, 18-year-old Wellston, Ohio native, who lists his address as Room 31, American Hotel, has been arrested for the theft of a television set from Kenny Hannan's Used Car lot, South Bloomfield.

Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff, arresting officer, picked Downard up 1 a.m. Monday for questioning. The television set, valued at $150, was found in his room.

He pleaded guilty to grand larceny charges in Municipal Court and was bound to the grand jury under $1,500 bond.

Sheriff Radcliff said Downard gained entrance to the used car office by breaking a rear door glass.

Ash To Have Little Impact On Budget For Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The appointment of Roy L. Ash as the new director of the Office of Management and Budget is unlikely to have any immediate or striking impact on the agency.

In fact, the 54-year-old California industrialist may have already reached a high point in his identification with OMB.

It was he who first recommended its creation as part of a governmental reorganization study for President Nixon's first term.

Now Ash will succeed present OMB director Caspar W. Weinberger, who is to become secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Ash told reporters that he will be more of an observer than anything else when key decisions are made on the fiscal 1974 budget, which will go to Congress in January. The document will outline Nixon's spending program from July 1973 to June 1974.

Weinberger, meantime, indicated that he will be working hard on the spending plans despite his nomination to HEW. He said OMB is expected to make recommendations by Thursday on how to hold spending in the current fiscal year to $250 billion.

He said spending for the current fiscal year is about $3 billion over that mark. Nixon plans to cut the budget as much as he can through withholding of appropriated money.

Ash declined comment on what policies he would follow as director of the OMB. He said he wanted time to get into the job before making policy statements.

But he indicated that his tenure will focus more on management than has been done in the past.

He said he will sell 200,000 shares of stock in Litton Industries and disengage himself formally from the shipbuilding firm on Dec. 8. He will become OMB director when Weinberger is confirmed as HEW secretary.

Richardson To Bring New Pentagon Leadership Style

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elliot L. Richardson will bring a new style of leadership to the Pentagon as secretary of Defense as well as a new management team in what is certain to be a wholesale reshuffling of top defense officials.

Aside from the immediate problems of the new budget and the old war, one of the first tasks facing the new secretary will be to rebuild the Pentagon leadership from the top down.

Richardson, now secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, is likely to draw on his present staff when he moves across the Potomac River from HEW on Jan. 20. Among them is likely to be Jonathan Moore, 39, said to be Richardson's alter ego at HEW and himself a former Pentagon official under Robert McNamara.

There will be a number of key jobs to fill as several officials, some holdovers from the Johnson administration who agreed to stay on under Melvin Laird have already indicated a desire to leave.

Richardson will have help from two deputy secretaries, one responsible for procurement and management and the other for international affairs and relations with the National Security Council. Traditionally there has been one deputy, now Kenneth Rush. A second was approved by Congress earlier this year, although the post was not filled.

Rush, 62, former ambassador to West Germany, had been mentioned as a possible successor.

AMA Eyes 'Peer' Plan, Dues Boost

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The American Medical Association headed for showdown votes today on the two remaining controversies of its current national convention.

One emerges from a battle recently lost with the federal government to prevent "peer review" of medical services under Medicare and Medicaid. The AMA must decide the best course for making the most of it.

The other involves increased membership dues. Unless the 156,000-member organization, in the words of its powerful board of trustees, exercises "fiscal restraint" and prunes "extraneous" activities, a dues increase will be needed.

The AMA's policy-making House of Delegates prepared to take action on the two issues after settling another big question Tuesday.

It voted Tuesday to move against what it termed a "significant problem" among physicians of narcotic dependence, alcoholism and other psychiatric disorders.

The protective system set up by the AMA could result in the loss of licenses by such doctors.

Food Costs Up Slightly In October

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumers paid slightly less for beef last month but a record high for pork, the Agriculture Department reported today.

For the second consecutive month, there was a small decrease in the general retail cost of food. The market price of a basket of foods produced on U.S. farms decreased 0.2 per cent in October, following an 0.1 per cent decrease in September. However, the October cost was 5.8 per cent more than a year ago.

Pork, the second most popular meat, again climbed to a record price average to 87.3 cents per pound, up 1 per cent from September and 22.7 per cent more than a year ago. The share returned to farmers was 44.4 per cent more than a year ago.

The middleman share for pork was 37.4 cents per pound, an increase of 8.7 per cent over September.

The October retail price of beef, an important indicator in the cost of living, was slightly less than $1.15 per pound average of all cuts. That included both hamburger and steak. The price declined 0.1 per cent from last month. Average beef prices were 4.5 cents per pound less than the record high last July.

Last week the Bureau of Labor Statistics said take-home food in October rose 0.1 per cent from September. The Agriculture Department report covers only food produced on American farms and does not include imported items and seafood products.

Court OKs Trial Setup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A person charged with murder can also be tried and convicted of separate offenses stemming from the same act, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled today.

The court upheld a three-count conviction and sentence against Robert Strozier of Cleveland, found guilty of the Jan. 18, 1970 slaying of Katharine Kepkall, 71.

Strozier also was found guilty and sentenced for two other offenses—killing while attempting rape and killing while attempting robbery.

A Common Pleas Court sentenced him to death on the rape charge and to life imprisonment on the other counts. The Supreme Court, earlier reduced the death penalty to life as the result of a U.S. Supreme Court decision that declared capital punishment, in most cases, unconstitutional.

Strozier argued unsuccessfully that the lower court erred in submitting all three counts of the indictment to the jury that found him guilty.

Stock List Goes Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices remained lower and drifting today as uncertainty over the Vietnam peace talks and profit-taking pressure kept investors on edge.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon EST was down 2.56 at 1054.78.

Declines led advances on the New York Stock Exchange by a slim margin.

"The market still seems to be consolidating its six-week advance," said Newton Zinder, analyst with E.F. Hutton Co.

Adding to investor uncertainties was the report that South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu planned to seek a meeting with President Nixon on the peace question, while the White House denied any meeting was planned.

The Big Board index at noon was down 31 at 65.57, and the American Stock Exchange price - change index was unchanged at 26.34.

New Budget Chief's Firm Entangled In Cost Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's new budget director heads a huge, financially troubled conglomerate which is trying to get $380 million from the federal government with claims the Navy says are unsubstantiated.

The newly named Cabinet-level official is Roy L. Ash, president of Litton Industries, once a leading glamour stock on Wall Street during the heyday of the conglomerates.

The company, which Ash co-founded nearly 20 years ago, now is struggling with delays and cost overruns on shipbuilding for the Navy. The difficulties helped plunge company earnings from $50 million in fiscal 1971 to $1.1 million in fiscal 1972. This year Litton's common stock price has fallen by more than half.

Litton has claimed the Navy should pay it $380 million for cancellation costs and design changes encountered in its construction of five giant helicopter assault ships.

The Navy said in September the claims were unsubstantiated, but it nonetheless continued an interim financing arrangement through February 1973. The original contract was for $666 million.

The Navy wrote Litton in June expressing concern "about Litton's ability to perform this contract even under your extended delivery schedule." It said the assault ship delays "could have a direct and potentially disastrous effect upon your ability to deliver the DD963 class destroyers" under a separate contract.

Litton's new automated shipyard at Pascagoula, Miss., has been plagued with difficulties in carrying out the Navy work.

Litton also has $198 million in three other shipbuilding claims pending before the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals.

The Congressional Joint Economic Committee, concerned about the shipbuilding deals, currently is investigating Litton.

Arrest Man For Posing As Doctor

PARMA, Ohio (AP) — A 28-year-old member of the Parma Community Hospital medical staff has been arrested on charges of practicing medicine without a license.

Parma police said the man, Uday Vastanikumar Gupte, posed as a doctor in four northeastern Ohio communities over a two year span by using the credentials of a doctor in New York City.

Ohio Medical Board investigator Leigh Wilson said Gupte posed as the New York doctor of the same name during jobs with the Euclid General Hospital, Richmond Heights General Hospital and the Trumbull County Memorial Hospital in Warren before going to work in Parma.

Wilson said Gupte was qualified to practice medicine in India, his native land where he went through medical school but that he failed medical tests required by the U.S.

Hospital officials indicated they were surprised to learn of the alleged deception. They described Gupte as "a very personable man."

"He was not a meatgrinder," one hospital administrator said. "He probably just couldn't pass those exams, and he decided one way or another he was going to get here."

The other Dr. Gupte, contacted in New York, said he was angry about someone using his name and thinks "he should be put in jail."

But, he added, "It was a pretty enterprising effort."

Mechanized Murder

Relaxed relations between the West and East Germany, with the latter apparently headed rapidly toward membership in the United Nations, have had no effect on the Berlin wall. It continues to do business as usual.

In fact, East Germany has installed what the Bonn Parliament calls "murder machines" along the boundary between the two nations.

The machines fire steel splinters at anyone trying to climb the wire fence that separates the two Germanys. Reports say they have been installed along 35 miles of border and work to expand them is continuing.

On the communist side of the infamous wall in Berlin the reds have installed the "death strip," an open area of ground floodlighted by mercury vapor lights so that marksmen in the long series of East German watchtowers can pick off anybody who manages to get that far.

American troops in Berlin regularly run armed patrols of the wire boundary outside the city to guard against encroachment. But their assistance to a fleeing East German is necessarily limited. And, anyway, the "murder machines" apparently will not be held against the East German regime when it applies for UN membership.

Reasonable Request

As expected, the Soviet Union is the leading critic of the proposal advanced by the United States that no member of the United Nations contribute more than 25 per cent of the total budget. The U.S. currently is paying an assessment of 31.52 per cent, which balloons into 40 per cent when all monies — including voluntary contributions — are included.

The Soviets now claim the U.S. should pay a higher percentage, not lower, based on the ability to pay. Yet the Soviet Union pays only about a third of the U.S. assessment, and for years has been in arrears on various special assessments.

Nor does the Soviet argument that the U.S. receives special benefits from hosting the UN hold water.

New York City has been complaining for years of the heavy burden placed on its protective forces and other facilities in servicing not only the UN buildings, but the more than 100 embassies and other foreign compounds scattered throughout the city.

There is no logical reason why a 25 per cent ceiling should not be adopted. Logic, however, sometimes takes peculiar twists in the halls of the international body.

Shape Of Peace To Come

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Richard Nixon apparently has pulled it off. At the beginning of his first term he said the world was about to move from a period of confrontation to one of negotiation. Coming from the Old Warrior par excellence the statement seemed at the time to be just another bit of flutulent rhetoric. But, lo and behold, one thing has followed another: the handshaking in Peking with Mao and Chou, the trip to Moscow, the go-ahead signal to Chancellor Willy Brandt of West Germany to open conversations with the East Bloc, the SALT I agreements, the planning for SALT II, the authorization of Boeing 707 jet plane sales to Red China and wheat shipments to a hungry Soviet Union, the various monetary understandings with old allies, the Middle East maneuverings to damp down the Arab-Israeli conflict, the prospect of taking natural gas from Siberia, and finally, the marathon Kissinger talks in Paris with the North Vietnamese and in Saigon with President Thieu.

We veterans of the Cold War, who might have preferred to keep the pressure on the two big Communist nations until, under internal stress, they would have been forced to relinquish their octopus grip on their satellites, may look upon what has happened with a certain amount of regret. In the coming world of the captive nations are destined to remain captive. There will be no forthcoming "third spring" in Prague. The Berlin Wall will not come down. The inhabitants of the Baltic states will remain serfs of the Imperial Kremlin. The young Hungarians will never again trust the U.S. to cow Moscow into disisting from using the threat of invading tanks to break a revolution.

Through we may shed a tear for what might have been, realism tells us that Nixon has accurately read the desires of millions for a cessation of struggle. I had this borne in upon me last September during a visit with West German friends in the Black Forest region. The older generation of the family we were staying with had not originally been Willy Brandt supporters. But they had grown tired of waiting for the reunification of the two Germanys on terms compatible with Western notions of an equally free citizenship for everybody. When a limited agreement with the East Germans permitted the mother of the family to visit her sister in the East Zone for the first time in some 25 years, she just had to welcome it. Her feelings, multiplied across the board in family after family, virtually guaranteed Willy Brandt his majority in the November election.

And so it must go throughout the world of the Era of Negotiations is not disrupted by unforeseen accident or contingency. The Cold War will continue in a muted sort of way as the East and the West maneuver stealthily to win the allegiance of Third-World countries and to compete on the oceans. But the romantic days of opposition to Communism are no more. Even Castro, bad cess to him, will get off the hook. The new watchword will be accommodation. Nixon hopes to build trade relations with the Soviets that will make for a situation which neither Washington nor Moscow can afford to disrupt. When Soviet natural gas begins to move through pipes to tidewater for shipment to the East, the Kremlin will no longer be able to afford open war. And when those Boeing 707s go to Red China, Peking's continuing need for spare parts and new engines will be a powerful argument for maintaining a diplomatic status quo.

Henry Kissinger, the student of early Nineteenth Century European diplomacy, has taken us back to 1815, when the anti-Napoleonic coalition imposed the so-called System of Metternich on Europe. There was peace from 1815 to 1848, but it was a peace based in many countries on domestic suppression. No doubt the peace was preferable to continued bloodletting. The lid eventually blew off with the uprisings of 1848, when literary romanticism moved a younger generation to the active romanticism of revolution.

The survivors of the Cold War must reluctantly bow to events. But the ghost of my old friend Bela Fabian, the Hungarian Freedom Fighter who used to bring me news from the East European underground, will surely trouble my sleep. How, when we meet beyond the River Styx, will I be able to explain it all to him? I wouldn't really know.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...
by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Does every human being have both male and female sex hormones?

Dear Miss R.:
Both male and female hormones are present in both sexes.

Estrogen is the female sex hormone. Androgen is the male sex hormone.

As the female advances into puberty and adolescence there is a slow, progressive diminution of the amount of male hormones in the blood. Similarly, there is a reduction of the female estrogen in the male as he advances into adulthood.

Hormones, both natural and synthetic, have a complexity that staggers the imagination. They play a role in every phase of health and disease. The way the body maintains the balance of hormones is intricate and mystifying.

When any hormonal imbalance is suspected, complex blood studies can now quickly reveal deficiencies and direct the path to re-establishing the hormone balance.

Many readers ask if the presence of male and female sex hormones in one person is responsible for homosexual tendencies. There may be some role that the hormones play in this alteration of male and female characteristics. But there are an infinite number of factors in the total equation of homosexuality, both physical and psychological, besides the distribution of hormones.

Can overweight contribute to the formation of a hernia? Mr. J. L. W., Ohio

Dear Mr. W.:
I do not know by your letter whether you refer to an inguinal hernia in the groin, or to another type of hernia.

An abdominal hernia following surgery is evident by a protrusion at the site of the incision.

While marked obesity is not necessarily responsible as a cause of the hernia, certainly it plays a role in making it more pronounced.

Severe overweight imposes a burden on every organ of the body. The heart, the lungs, the liver, the spleen, the intestines and the entire circulatory system pay a penalty for the added work imposed on them by the extra poundage.

What is the normal pulse rate. Mr. I.A.B., Ark.

Dear Mr. B.:
The pulse rate varies in people, depending on their age, the climate, geographic elevation, and general body condition.

In health, and under normal circumstances a heart beat (pulse rate) is about 80 times a minute. With physical exertion this may go up to 120 times a minute. An important index to

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

So vast is the sun that a single storm upon the solar surface can produce in a single hour enough energy to satisfy the present power needs of the United States at the present rate for a century.

A Los Angeles spokesman for product for today's market is a three-step process, an industrial wit says. First, an American firm announces an invention; second, the Russians claim they made the same discovery 20 years ago; third, the Japanese start exporting it.

If you want to be understood by everyone on earth, you'd have to be able to speak more than 3,000 languages. The largest, Mandarin Chinese, is spoken by 500 million people. English has by now probably become the second language to more people than any other tongue.

By the way, the Chinese, who are credited with having invented everything from gunpowder to spaghetti, also are believed to have been the first people to produce dictionaries. The one thing they didn't invent is chop suey, which is more indigenous to San Francisco than China.

Quotable notables: "The chief function of the body is to carry the brain around." Thomas A. Edison.

Half-forgotten heroes: The odds are at least 2 to 1 that you can't identify Karl Benz. Benz is the German inventor of the first reliable automobile in 1885. It had three wheels, an engine behind its single seat with only three-fourths of a horsepower, and on a fast track it could make a sedate eight miles an hour.

Surgical ants: Few people know that ants have an honored place in the history of human surgery. At least since the second century B.C. Hindu doctors used black ants, which have powerful jaws, in battlefield surgery. The ant was held up to the wound or incision until it had closed it with its jaws. The body of the insect was then pinched off, but its head still retained its grip on the incision. This surgical trick was used for centuries by physicians from Africa to Southern Europe.

In Finland, a driver caught with a detectable trace of liquor on his breath, can be jailed for up to five months — and at hard labor if he kills or injures anyone.

It was Don Marquis who observed, "An optimist is a guy who has never had much experience."

The Business World

By LAURANCE F. STUNTZ (For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — The symbol of ecological devastation still is the scarred landscape, slashed and torn by man in his quest for the natural wealth of the earth. But someday that laceration might not be so obvious.

Prod by criticism and threatened by legislation, companies which mine the earth for coal or ores or simply for new highway fill, are attempting to restore a natural appearance after they leave.

And now there is developing another incentive, one that business understands better. That's the profit motive, which yet may prove to be the ecologist's friend after all.

Between Dallas and Fort Worth, for example, a wildlife park exists on the reclaimed land of an old Gifford-Hill & Co. gravel pit. Near Indianapolis, an abandoned American Aggregate pit is the site of new housing.

In some instances the companies that did the digging are also responsible for converting the land to new uses, such as golf courses, lakes and shopping centers, but most do so with the aid of specialists.

To date, those specializing in land reclamation are even further fragmented into different aspects of the industry — in market research, financial feasibility studies, utilization planning and the like.

Howard Hoffman claims to be the forerunner of a new type of enterprise, an organization that handles all aspects of the job: the studies, tax analysis, zoning changes, community relations, reconstruction, managing.

"We take surplus corporate assets — vestigial organs — and make money with them," he says.

Well before ecology became a central consideration for corporations, Hoffman was trying to sell them on using idle assets in imaginative ways, not only as a contribution to community appearance but to profits as well.

A former investor-developer who failed three times before making the grade, and who thus believes he finally knows his subject, he spent two years goading prospects to "get off your assets" before he landed a customer 10 years ago. In Olympia, Wash., the St. Regis Paper Co. had idled a waterfront logging plant. With Hoffman's help it was subdivided for nine different tenants and then sold to the Port of Olympia for $2 million.

"Corporations don't understand real estate," he maintains. "It's a feel, a technique, an art, a creative feeling. The corporations have no expertise, no knowledge. No business school can teach you this business."

The problem for the corporations, he claims, is that they continue to think as corporate officials rather than real estate developers. "They have to think as entrepreneurs — and they can't."

As he explains it, the tough part is not drawing up the plans, but in completing the nitty-gritty work of rezoning, conducting engineering studies, obtaining rights-of-way and finding a builder-developer or investor to participate in a joint venture with the corporation.

15 YEARS AGO

A new Western school district and a revised Northeast school district were created by the Pickaway County Board of Education.

The new Western district was comprised of eight separate school districts — Monroe, Darby, Muhlenberg, Jackson, Perry, Deer Creek, New Holland and Wayne.

The Northeast district was made up of Scioto, Harrison, Ashville, Local, Madison and Walnut.

Circleville High School's first South Central Ohio League championship team, the squad of 1948-49, held a reunion during halftime of the Circleville-Washington C. H. game.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 29, the 344th day of 1972. There are 32 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1760 the French surrendered Detroit to the English at the end of the French and Indian War.

On this date— In 1825, the first Italian opera was presented in the United States. It was a production of Rossini's "Barber of Seville" in New York.

In 1890, the first Japanese Diet convened. In 1899, the United States, Switzerland and France granted diplomatic recognition to Brazil.

In 1932, France and the Soviet Union signed a non-aggression pact.

In 1939, the Soviet Union severed diplomatic relations with Finland.

doctors is how quickly after exertion the pulse rate returns to normal.

They'll Do It Every Time

Mechanized Murder

Relaxed relations between the West and East Germany, with the latter apparently headed rapidly toward membership in the United Nations, have had no effect on the Berlin wall. It continues to do business as usual.

In fact, East Germany has installed what the Bonn Parliament calls "murder machines" along the boundary between the two nations.

The machines fire steel splinters at anyone trying to climb the wire fence that separates the two Germanys. Reports say they have been installed along 35 miles of border and work to expand them is continuing.

On the communist side of the infamous wall in Berlin the reds have installed the "death strip," an open area of ground floodlighted by mercury vapor lights so that marksmen in the long series of East German watchtowers can pick off anybody who manages to get that far.

American troops in Berlin regularly run armed patrols of the wire boundary outside the city to guard against encroachment. But their assistance to a fleeing East German is necessarily limited. And, anyway, the "murder machines" apparently will not be held against the East German regime when it applies for UN membership.

Reasonable Request

As expected, the Soviet Union is the leading critic of the proposal advanced by the United States that no member of the United Nations contribute more than 25 per cent of the total budget. The U.S. currently is paying an assessment of 31.52 per cent, which balloons into 40 per cent when all monies — including voluntary contributions — are included.

The Soviets now claim the U.S. should pay a higher percentage, not lower, based on the ability to pay. Yet the Soviet Union pays only about a third of the U.S. assessment, and for years has been in arrears on various special assessments.

Nor does the Soviet argument that the U.S. receives special benefits from hosting the UN hold water.

New York City has been complaining for years of the heavy burden placed on its protective forces and other facilities in servicing not only the UN buildings, but the more than 100 embassies and other foreign compounds scattered throughout the city.

There is no logical reason why a 25 per cent ceiling should not be adopted. Logic, however, sometimes takes peculiar twists in the halls of the international body.

THURSDAY'S FORECAST

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

Poor judgment is in effect in the morning. This could lead to trouble unless you are careful when making comments. In the afternoon and evening you are able to make long-range plans, enjoy those close to you and to show appreciation for your blessings. Use your fine mind to advantage.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A good day to talk over leisurely with associates what should be done to make joint relationships more satisfying. Evening is fine for establishing more harmony at home. Use tact.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You may want to start on a trip in the morning, but this would not be wise, since you have important matter to discuss with others first. Take exercise and enjoy the day's festivities.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Take some time to plan your activities wisely and then carry through successfully. Tell closest ties what you expect of them, but do so tactfully. Make this a memorable day.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Concentrate your efforts on home and family today and this becomes a most enjoyable day. Don't argue with an associate. Much harmony can be established now. Relax at home tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Spend time with good friends today even though it may mean traveling quite a distance. Plan some time for handling important correspondence. Travel with utmost care and be alert to danger.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) A good day to think over financial arrangements you want to make for the future and then put them down on paper tonight. Don't forget to give thanks for your blessings. Renew your faith.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A good day to get together with persons you really like and have a good time, while counting your blessings and giving thanks. Find the right social outlets and become a more popular person.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Study a plan you have in mind for making the future greater for yourself and then discuss it later with the right people. Make this a happy day. Show more devotion to loved one.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You will be able to make new and worthwhile friends today. A good day to join a new group that can accomplish a great deal. Show that you are aggressive and that you like people.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Find the best way to gain the favor of those who count a great deal in your life and make this a most wonderful day. Show true devotion to friends. Much good can come out of this.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You want to start a whole new set of conditions in your life and you are able to do just that provided you act quickly. Prove to mate that you are loyal. Show that you are thankful.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Use your good hunches to come to a better understanding with others, especially those who mean much to you, either in business or personal affairs. Make conditions at home better.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those charming young people who can become quite successful in life because of the fine artistic and cultural talents in this chart. Be sure to direct education along lines that will help your progeny become a true artist. There will be a fine balance here, where arbitration is concerned. The political life is also good.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Does every human being have both male and female sex hormones?

Miss R. R., S.D.

Dear Miss R.: Both male and female hormones are present in both sexes.

Estrogen is the female sex hormone. Androgen is the male sex hormone.

As the female advances into puberty and adolescence there is a slow, progressive diminution of the amount of male hormones in the blood.

Similarly, there is a reduction of the female estrogen in the male as he advances into adulthood.

Hormones, both natural and synthetic, have a complexity that staggers the imagination. They play a role in every phase of health and disease.

The balance of hormones is intricate and mystifying.

When any hormonal imbalance is suspected, complex blood studies can now quickly reveal deficiencies and direct the path to re-establishing the hormone balance.

Many readers ask if the presence of male and female sex hormones in one person is responsible for homosexual tendencies.

There may be some role that the hormones play in this alteration of male and female characteristics. But there are an infinite number of factors in the total equation of homosexuality, both physical and psychological, besides the distribution of hormones.

Can overweight contribute to the formation of a hernia?

Mr. J. L. W., Ohio

I do not know by your letter whether you refer to an inguinal hernia in the groin, or to another type of hernia.

An abdominal hernia following surgery is evident by a protrusion at the site of the incision.

While marked obesity is not necessarily responsible as a cause of the hernia, certainly it plays a role in making it more pronounced.

Severe overweight imposes a burden on every organ of the body. The heart, the lungs, the liver, the spleen, the intestines and the entire circulatory system pay a penalty for the added work imposed on them by the extra poundage.

What is the normal pulse rate.

Mr. L.A.B., Ark.

The pulse rate varies in people, depending on their age, the climate, geographic elevation, and general body condition.

In health, and under normal circumstances a heart beat (pulse rate) is about 80 times a minute.

With physical exertion this may go up to 120 times a minute. An important index to

By the way, the Chinese, who are credited with having invented everything from gunpowder to spaghetti, also are believed to have been the first people to produce dictionaries. The one thing they didn't invent is chop suey, which is more indigenous to San Francisco than China.

Half-forgotten heroes: The odds are at least 2 to 1 that you can't identify Karl Benz. Benz is the German inventor of the first reliable automobile in 1885. It had three wheels, an engine behind its single seat with only three-fourths of a horsepower, and on a fast track it could make a sedate eight miles an hour.

Surgical ants: Few people know that ants have an honored place in the history of human surgery. At least since the second century B.C. Hindu doctors used black ants, which have powerful jaws, in battlefield surgery. The ant was held up to the wound or incision until it had closed it with its jaws. The body of the insect was then pinched off, but its head still retained its grip on the incision. This surgical trick was used for centuries by physicians from Africa to Southern Europe.

By LAURANCE F. STUNTZ (For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — The symbol of ecological devastation still is the scarred landscape, slashed and torn by man in his quest for the natural wealth of the earth. But so-land reclamation are even further fragmented into different aspects of the industry — in market research, financial feasibility studies, utilization planning and the like.

Howard Hoffman claims to be the forerunner of a new type of enterprise, an organization that handles all aspects of the job: the studies, tax analysis, zoning changes, community relations, reconstruction, managing.

"We take surplus corporate assets — vestigial organs — and make money with them," he says.

Well before ecology became a central consideration for corporations, Hoffman was trying to sell them on using idle assets in imaginative ways, not only as a contribution to community appearance but to profits as well.

A former investor-developer who failed three times before making the grade, and who thus believes he finally knows his subject, he spent two years goading prospects to "get off your assets" before he landed a customer 10 years ago. In Olympia, Wash., the St. Regis Paper Co. had idled a waterfront logging plant. With Hoffman's help it was subdivided for nine different tenants and then sold to the Port of Olympia for $2 million.

"Corporations don't understand real estate," he maintains. "It's a feel, a technique, an art, a creative feeling. The corporations have no expertise, no knowledge. No business school can teach you this business."

The problem for the corporations, he claims, is that they continue to think as corporate officials rather than real estate developers. "They have to think as entrepreneurs — and they can't."

As he explains it, the tough part is not drawing up the plans, but in completing the nitty-gritty work of rezoning, conducting engineering studies, obtaining rights-of-way and finding a builder-developer or investor to participate in a joint venture with the corporation.

'4 Eyes' For Better Pass Interception

DEAR ABBY: A high school girl signed, "Four Eyes," wrote complaining because she had to wear glasses. "And to make matters worse," she added, "someone wrote me a note, saying, 'Guys never make passes at girls who wear glasses.'"

You sought to comfort her with your own verse, "Guys will make passes at girls who wear glasses, providing the dames have good looking frames."

Your reply puts you in first-rate company, as Christopher Morley wrote a two-line postscript to that famous verse: "But glasses can always be checked."

"By a girl who's about to be necked."

SALT CREEK PTO

The Salt Creek Parent Teachers Organization meeting was held in the school gymnasium Nov. 20 and was the Thanksgiving program.

Jim Everhart, president, opened the meeting by leading the audience on the pledge to the flag.

The eye screening clinic committee was thanked for its time and service. Progress was reported on the fruit sales and volunteers were asked to help with the delivery of the fruit when it arrives.

Mrs. Dow West's fifth grade room was the room count with 44 parents present. The refreshment committee members were thanked and no committee was named for December as the executive members will help Santa with his treat.

At the close of the meeting, students with the help of the teachers presented a delightful program of poems, songs and historical background on Thanksgiving.

The sixth grade students held a drawing of $50 which was won by Pamela Huffman, also a sixth grade student at Salt Creek.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

The December meeting will be held Dec. 19 with the students again presenting the Christmas program.

Honolulu May Get Municipal Credit Card

HONOLULU (AP) — Honolulu may become the first city to have an American Express credit card.

The city Office of Social Resources received a letter Monday from American Express addressed to "Mr. Honolulu City-County."

The two-page letter, signed by Maurice Segall, senior vice president and general manager for the American Express card division, started, "Dear Mr. County," and included an application for a credit card.

The habit of some dinosaurs of eating the eggs of others probably played a part in bringing an end to dinosaurs.

In case you have further correspondence with "Four Eyes," please remind her that a young man's character, disposition, and behavior are much more important than whether he wears spectacles. Likewise, any male worthy of her attention will judge her by her essential qualities rather than by her optical equipment. Greetings,

G. P. IN ANN ARBOR, MICH.

DEAR G.P.: You're right! I once fell in love with a shy college man who wore glasses. I can still remember how my heart pounded when he walked me to my door and removed his glasses, because then I knew he planned to kiss me goodnight. (P.S. I married the man.)

DEAR ABBY: Each morning (Monday through Friday) a young neighbor honks his horn at an early hour as he leaves for work. I presume it is intended as a cheery goodbye signal to his wife.

This honking disturbs us and others in the neighborhood. We are elderly and not in the best of health. We don't wish to alienate our young neighbors, but how can we let them know this honking disturbs us?

DEAR MATTISON STREET: After this hits print, you may not have to.

DEAR ABBY: The man who reduced his wife to tears when he suggested that instead of a family vacation, the money be spent for "a face lift for mother" may not have deserved the rebuke you gave him.

Perhaps he had stood around the bedroom day after day listening to his wife complain (during menopause, no doubt) about how terrible she looked and how depressing it was to see her wrinkled, sagging face in the mirror, and he thought a face lift would make her the happiest woman in the world.

Maybe he deserves to be chastised for making the offer at the dining room table in the presence of the children without first having done a little personal exploring, but nobody's perfect.

No, I didn't make the same mistake. But I might have.

MR. AVERAGE

DEAR MR.: I agree his offer was lovely, but his timing was lousy. And that's why I chastised him.

I carried an umbrella, rain or shine. When harassed by a dog, I simply open it in his face and Fido retreats in confusion because he can't figure out what it is, especially if I get fancy and rotate the handle and flap it open and shut a time or two.

If he attempts to circle me, I ease the umbrella behind me with the grace of a bullfighter and keep the shield between me and the dog.

EUGENE

DEAR EUGENE: Beautiful! Your suggestion may start a boom in the umbrella business.

Trade Deficit Shows Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. trade deficit was sharply reduced in October, the Commerce Department reports.

The department said not since last January has the difference between what America buys from overseas and what it sells abroad been so small.

The deficit figures made public Monday: $415 million in October, $513.2 million in September and $318.8 last January.

Trade deficits are a measure of how well or how poorly American goods are selling in other countries, as well as a constant reminder of pressures on the value of the dollar worldwide.

The department said exports were up 5 per cent last month to a seasonally adjusted $4.364 billion in value, while imports rose by 2.3 per cent to $4.779 billion.

The United States had a trade deficit of $2 billion in 1971, the first of this century. So far in 1972, the deficit totals $5.2 billion with November and December figures still to come.

Old-Time Blues Players Pep Up Festival

By DOUG STONE
Associated Press Writer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Some of the time-weathered blues men were so old they hobbled onto the stage, but the music they produced wasn't the least bit lame.

The scene: the Second Annual River City Blues Festival, an aggregation of the best of what's left of the true blues musicians from up and down the Mississippi River — mostly ancient black men whose early records are now collector's items.

The names from the past: Bukka White, Furry Lewis, Thelma "Speedy" Ashford, Sam Chatmon, Jimmy Deberry, Mrs. Van Hunt, Houston Stackhouse, Harmonica Frank Floyd, Big Sam Clark, Willie Morris, "Piano Red" Williams, Joe Willie Wilkins and his King-Biscuit Boys.

The festival brought them together under one roof last weekend and they showed the spectators just what "the blues" really is.

Take the rhythm of Africa, throw in a dash of the old work songs of the cottonfields, blend in the mood of the lazy southern rivers, and decades of oppression in which happy moments didn't come easy, then sprinkle in a thousand other ingredients and you can, perhaps, define the blues.

Whatever it is, it is not brassy. Nobody at the festival of the "old blues" brought a horn—it was guitars, harmonicas and pianos.

The music created on them was enough to drift the audience into a head-nodding rhythm so they could keep the beat with hands and feet.

Sam Chatmon, born in 1899 in Hinds County, Miss., is holding down a nightwatchman's job these days. But he stroked a guitar with nimble fingers and told the spectators, "You've just been sitting there, now I'm going to run you out." He did "St. Louis Blues."

Many of the songs didn't have names—they were a feeling expressed in music for which there was no name other than "the blues."

The names of other songs told the story, mostly of lost women, hard times and down and out on whisky—"Doggone Sugar Blues Done Soured On Me," and "Got To Stop My Boogie 'Cause My Woogie Don't Work No More."

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Some of the time-weathered blues men were so old they hobbled onto the stage, but the music they produced wasn't the least bit lame.

The scene: the Second Annual River City Blues Festival, an aggregation of the best of what's left of the true blues musicians from up and down the Mississippi River — mostly ancient black men whose early records are now collector's items.

The names from the past: Bukka White, Furry Lewis, Thelma "Speedy" Ashford, Sam Chatmon, Jimmy Deberry, Mrs. Van Hunt, Houston Stackhouse, Harmonica Frank Floyd, Big Sam Clark, Willie Morris, "Piano Red" Williams, Joe Willie Wilkins and his King-Biscuit Boys.

The festival brought them together under one roof last weekend and they showed the spectators just what "the blues" really is.

Take the rhythm of Africa, throw in a dash of the old work songs of the cottonfields, blend in the mood of the lazy southern rivers, and decades of oppression in which happy moments didn't come easy, then sprinkle in a thousand other ingredients and you can, perhaps, define the blues.

Whatever it is, it is not brassy. Nobody at the festival of the "old blues" brought a horn—it was guitars, harmonicas and pianos.

The music created on them was enough to drift the audience into a head-nodding rhythm so they could keep the beat with hands and feet.

Sam Chatmon, born in 1899 in Hinds County, Miss., is holding down a nightwatchman's job these days. But he stroked a guitar with nimble fingers and told the spectators, "You've just been sitting there, now I'm going to run you out." He did "St. Louis Blues."

Many of the songs didn't have names—they were a feeling expressed in music for which there was no name other than "the blues."

The names of other songs told the story, mostly of lost women, hard times and down and out on whisky—"Doggone Sugar Blues Done Soured On Me," and "Got To Stop My Boogie 'Cause My Woogie Don't Work No More."

Old-Time Blues Players Pep Up Festival

Perhaps the best known of the performers were Bukka White and Furry Lewis.

White, 63, a native of Houston, Miss., is a cousin of and was the musical inspiration for contemporary bluesman B. B. King. White started recording for Victor in 1930, then hoboed around the country and said he ended up in the mid-30s in Parchman Prison in Mississippi.

Just before that, he had recorded a best seller, "Shake 'Em On Down," for Arc. He did 14 songs while in prison and they were released on Herwin and did not sell well. They have since been re-issued by Columbia under the title "Parchman Farm."

Prison life apparently left its scar on White and he dropped off the music scene until he was re-discovered in the 1960s. Now, he gets requests for performances from overseas as well as in the United States.

Furry Lewis, 79, is an ex-street cleaner, ex-hobo, ex-medicine show man. He's been recording since 1927 under a number of companies.

The only white performer at the River City Blues Festival was Harmonica Frank Floyd, who strums a guitar while playing the harmonica, held in his mouth without the assistance of a rack.

Floyd, 64, achieved modest fame in the 1920s through 40s, mostly on radio. He did a few records over the years, the last of which were in 1950 for the Memphis labels Chess and Sun.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

'4 Eyes' For Better Pass Interception

DEAR ABBY: A high school girl signed, "Four Eyes," wrote complaining because she had to wear glasses. "And to make matters worse," she added, "someone wrote me a note, saying, 'Guys never make passes at girls who wear glasses.'"

You sought to comfort her with your own verse, "Guys will make passes at girls who wear glasses, providing the dames have good looking frames."

Your reply puts you in first-rate company, as Christopher Morley wrote a two-line postscript to that famous verse: "But glasses can always be checked."

"By a girl who's about to be necked."

In case you have further correspondence with "Four Eyes," please remind her that a young man's character, disposition, and behavior are much more important than whether he wears spectacles. Likewise, any male worthy of her attention will judge her by her essential qualities rather than by her optical equipment. Greetings,

G. P. IN ANN ARBOR, MICH.
DEAR G.P.: You're right! I once fell in love with a shy college man who wore glasses. I can still remember how my heart pounded when he walked me to my door and removed his glasses, because then I knew he planned to kiss me goodnight. (P.S. I married the man.)

DEAR ABBY: Each morning (Monday through Friday) a young neighbor honks his horn at an early hour as he leaves for work. I presume it is intended as a cheery goodbye signal to his wife.

This honking disturbs us and others in the neighborhood. We are elderly and not in the best of health. We don't wish to alienate our young neighbors, but how can we let them know this honking disturbs us?

MATTISON STREET, FRESBURG, N.Y.

DEAR MATTISON STREET: After this hits print, you may not have to.

DEAR ABBY: The man who reduced his wife to tears when he suggested that instead of a family vacation, the money be spent for "a face lift for mother" may not have deserved the rebuke you gave him.

Perhaps he had stood around the bedroom day after day listening to his wife complain (during menopause, no doubt) about how terrible she looked and how depressing it was to see her wrinkled, sagging face in the mirror, and he thought a face lift would make her the happiest woman in the world.

Maybe he deserves to be chastised for making the offer at the dining room table in the presence of the children without first having done a little personal exploring, but nobody's perfect.

No, I didn't make the same mistake. But I might have.

MR. AVERAGE
DEAR MR.: I agree his offer was lovely, but his timing was lousy. And that's why I chastised him.

DEAR ABBY: A tip from another veteran letter carrier for "Afraid of Dogs."

I carried an umbrella, rain or shine. When harassed by a dog, I simply open it in his face and Fido retreats in confusion because he can't figure out what it is, especially if I get fancy and rotate the handle and flap it open and shut a time or two.

If he attempts to circle me, I ease the umbrella behind me with the grace of a bullfighter and keep the shield between me and the dog.

EUGENE
DEAR EUGENE: Beautiful! Your suggestion may start a boom in the umbrella business.

Trade Deficit Shows Drop

By DOUG STONE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. trade deficit was sharply reduced in October, the Commerce Department reports.

The department said not since last January has the difference between what America buys from overseas and what it sells abroad been so small.

The deficit figures made public Monday: $415 million in October, $513.2 million in September and $318.8 last January.

Trade deficits are a measure of how well or how poorly American goods are selling in other countries, as well as a constant reminder of pressures on the value of the dollar worldwide.

The department said exports were up 5 per cent last month to a seasonally adjusted $4.364 billion in value, while imports rose by 2.3 per cent to $4.779 billion.

The United States had a trade deficit of $2 billion in 1971, the first of this century. So far in 1972, the deficit totals $2.2 billion with November and December figures still to come.

John DeBonis Named Institute Trustee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John Gilligan has named John R. DeBonis of Bellaire as a trustee of the Belmont-Harrison-Moore Technical Institute District.

DeBonis, president of the Belmont County AFL-CIO, will fill the unexpired term of Ronald Milleson, who resigned.

SALT CREEK PTO

The Salt Creek Parent Teachers Organization meeting was held in the school gymnasium Nov. 20 and was the Thanksgiving program.

Jim Everhart, president, opened the meeting by leading the audience on the pledge to the flag.

The eye screening clinic committee was thanked for its time and services. Progress was reported on the fruit sales and volunteers were asked to help with the delivery of the fruit when it arrives.

Mrs. Dow West's fifth grade room was the room count with 44 parents present. The refreshment committee members were thanked and no committee was named for December as the executive members will help Santa with his treat.

At the close of the meeting, students with the help of the teachers presented a delightful program of poems, songs and historical background on Thanksgiving.

The sixth grade students held a drawing of $50 which was won by Pamela Huffman, also a sixth grade student at Salt Creek.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

The December meeting will be held Dec. 19 with the students again presenting the Christmas program.

Honolulu May Get Municipal Credit Card

HONOLULU (AP) — Honolulu may become the first city to have an American Express credit card.

The city Office of Social Resources received a letter Monday from American Express addressed to "Mr. Honolulu City-County."

The two-page letter, signed by Maurice Segall, senior vice president and general manager for the American Express card division, started, "Dear Mr. County," and included an application for a credit card.

The habit of some dinosaurs of eating the eggs of others probably played a part in bringing an end to dinosaurs.

Bride's Grandparents' Anniversary
Date Selected For Wedding Rites

MR. AND MRS. DENNIS BRIAN GREEN

Bands of gold were exchanged by Miss Melody Jo Melvin and Mr. Dennis Brian Green in the Nov. 18 ceremony joining the couple in marriage.

Rev. Carl Wetherford officiated at the service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Melvin, Route 2, Ashville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Green, Route 1, Orient.

The couple's chosen wedding date marked the 50th anniversary of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Melvin, Route 2, Ashville.

The altar of the Commercial Point United Methodist Church was adorned with floral arrangements in white and pink and was banded in candlelight from two seven-branch candelabra which stood to either side. Pink pew bows marked the aisle.

Mrs. Charlotte Brown, organist, provided a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Kandy Gaul.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents was attired in a gown of Chantilly lace and organza in an A-line. The bodice was tightly-fitted, with a sabrina neckline trimmed in seed pearls, an arched inset waist and long fitted sleeves ending in bridal points over her hands. A panel of organza joined at the center of the bodice and fell in a soft drape to the hem. Her lace cathedral train was caught to the shoulder of her gown and complemented by the bridal veil, a Chantilly lace mantilla falling full to the floor from a Camelot crown. She carried a single gladiolus cluster edged with stephanotis.

Mrs. Ruth Rose was the bride's matron of honor. Deep purple was the color of her crushed velvet skirt which joined a long-sleeved bodice of off-white nylon at a lace and rosebud band. Similar lace accented with buds enhance the high neckline. She carried a single pink rose with ribbon streamers.

Miss Susan Green, the groom's sister, and Misses Julie Ann Green and Scarlett Lee Green, cousins of the groom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers were of matching color and design to the honor attendant's. All four attendants wore gold necklaces, gifts from the bride.

Miss Wendy Howard, as flower girl, prepared a path of flower petals for the bride's walk down the aisle.

Serving his friend as best man was Mr. Jeffrey Writsel. Ushering were Mr. William Hott, brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. Teddy Melvin, the bride's brother and Tom Green, cousin to the groom.

Mrs. Melvin selected a lavender long-sleeve polyester knit dress in street length for the wedding of her daughter.

Mrs. Green was attired in a pink, long-sleeved, street-length dress, with a lace redingote. Both wore pink and white pom-pom corsages.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hott, Thriakill Road. Centering the bride's table was a three-tiered cake adorned with white doves and angels and topped with the traditional figures of a bridal couple.

Hostessing the event were Mrs. Kaye Hott, sister of the bride; Mrs. Lou Ann Boone, Mrs. Virginia Neehling and Mrs. Cheri Melvin, the bride's sister-in-law.

For a wedding trip to the western states, the bride was costumed in a navy blue, red and white polyester dress with matching accessories. She wore a white pom-pom corsage centered with a single red rose.

The couple now resides at Route 1, Orient.

The new Mrs. Green is a graduate of Teays Valley High School and Weaver Airline School, Kansas City, Mo. She is employed in the communications and records department of the Ohio State Highway Patrol Command in Columbus.

Her husband also graduated from Teays Valley High School and completed training at the Clark County Technical Institute in Springfield. He is engaged in farming.

Out of town guests were from Chillicothe, Lucasville, Westerville, Lancaster, London, Columbus and Grove City.

Stork Shower

Fetes Mrs.

John Gumm

Mrs. Danny Grant and daughter, Kimberly, Route 2, Circleville, recently hosted a stork shower for Mrs. John Gumm of Chillicothe.

Green and yellow streamers were suspended over a table where the guests placed their gifts. A doll baby and umbrella were placed in the center of the refreshments table where nut cups were decorated with a picture of a baby and the cake was enhanced with miniature baby notions.

Games were played with prizes won by Alice Valentine, Wanda Taylor, Linda Rhinehart and Edna Gumm. They each presented their prizes to the honored guest.

Attending the event were: Alice Valentine, Edna Gumm, Alice Gibson, Betty Teets, Bernice Barnett, Wanda Taylor, Linda Rhinehart, Weltha Garrett and Shannon Gumm.

Gifts were sent by Polly Ater, Helen Roberts, Charlotte Roberts and Nancy Dutcher.

Prior to the affair Mrs. Gumm was honored with a shower of gifts from co-workers friends at the local General Electric plant.

Shower Honors

Bride-Elect

Robtown Parish Hall was the setting Sunday afternoon for a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Linda Fausnaugh, bride-elect of Bill Blue, hosted by her aunts.

A decorated pink and white umbrella was suspended over the gift table. Contests were won by Sue Eitel, Karen Fausnaugh and Nancy Happeney.

Present for the shower were: Barbara Wolford Mrs. Pearl Fortner Arlene Fortner, Gretchen Fortner, Linda Beavers, Lisa Fausnaugh, Nancy Happeney, Karen Fausnaugh, Jean Strickler, Betty Smith.

Sue Eitel, Mrs. Daisy Eitel, Mrs. Lucy Fausnaugh, Verdale Eitel, Donna Jean Beavers, June Eitel, Beulah Temple, Helen Fausnaugh, Jennie Eccard, Marilyn Fausnaugh, Evelyn Beavers, Jeannie Eitel, Carolyn Cline, Hattie Forst, Velma Marshall and Joan Bachman.

Sending gifts as they were unable to attend were: Mrs. Marge Blue, Mrs. Mary Grabill, Carol Sue Dilly and Helen Burns.

A desert course, carrying out the pink and white theme was served by the hostesses.

Queen And Court Named At Annual Harvest Ball

The Marie L. Hamilton Assembly 170, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, held a Harvest Ball Friday evening at St. Philip's Episcopal Church Parish Hall, W. Mound St.

The hall was decorated in harvest style with streamers of brown, green and gold. Pumpkins, gourds, winter bouquets and fall motifs adorned walls and tables. The decorations were done by Miss Janalee Taylor and her committee.

Refreshments were served, buffet style, by the Misses Suzi Ervin, Meri Gay Wood, and their committee. Seventy-five girls and boys were in attendance.

Chaperones were Miss Jacqueline Layton, George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Litter. The Assembly held an election by secret ballot to elect a Harvest Queen and Court.

Miss Nanissa Anderson and Charles Taylor made the presentation at approximately 9:30 p.m. Taylor presented flowers to Miss Martha Dumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Dumm, Route 1, Laurelville, and Miss Nancy Clifton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clifton Circleville as second and first attendants respectively. Mr. Taylor then presented flowers and a crown to the Harvest Queen, Miss Kathleen Litter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Litter, Circleville.

Fred Archer, Circleville, was responsible for acquiring the bands for the dance and acted as both master of ceremonies and coordinator of both bands.

The first band to play was the "Iron Myst" composed of Jeff Knece, Brent Jones, and John Beck. The second band, "Amnesty" was composed of Skip McCabe, Jeff Walisa and Rick Smith.

The next project for the Assembly will be a Smorgasbord Dinner, open to the public, to be held Dec. 2nd, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Tickets may be purchased from any Rainbow Girl or at the door.

American History Essay Contest Scheduled By DAR

"A Patriot Of 1733" is the subject chosen for this year's American History Essay Contest sponsored annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Since its inception in 1956 this program has been designed to stimulate interest in young people and to present a challenge that will create desire to know, understand and appreciate their American heritage.

Fifth, sixth seventh and eighth grade students of Circleville and Pickaway County are eligible to compete. Each grade is judged separately on historical accuracy, adherence to the subject originality, interest, neatness, spelling and punctuation. Each essay must be handwritten. A typewritten copy may be included but is not required.

Students in the 5th and 6th grades should write 300-600 words. Those in 7th and 8th grades should write 600-1000 words. Overlength essays will be disqualified.

A bibliography of books pamphlets, letters or other research material used in writing the essay must be included. If personal family items are used, the name of the owner must be given.

All essays will be judged by Pickaway Plains Chapter DAR. Winning essays are sent to state judges, then to division judges and finally to a team of three non-DAR judges who pick the national winners.

The title of the essay, contestant's name and full home address with zip code, name of school, grade and name of sponsoring DAR chapter (Pickaway Plains) must be plainly written on the essay. Lack of these items will be cause for disqualification.

Entries must be received no later than Jan. 17, 1973. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Emerson Spicer, chairman, Pickaway Plains Chapter, DAR American History Essay Contest.

Doctor Attacks AMA Failures

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The American Medical Association is in trouble because of "far too much defection from our ranks" by disillusioned members, a doctor says.

Dr. Jack Schreiber of Canfield, Ohio, a delegate to the organization's biannual national convention, declared in an address Monday to the AMA's Council on Long Range Planning (CLRP):

"An alarming number of our (AMA) members are turning to unionism, foundations, special societies, other organizations, or just folding up their tents and saying, 'The hell with it!'"

Instant coca mixes are usually a blend of cocoa, sugar, flavoring and sometimes nonfat dry milk.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gobel and family of Williamsport were hosts to friends Friday night with a steak supper. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Bruce, Eric and Marty of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Callahan, Kim and Joey of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Groves of Sugar Grove; Wamie Johnson and Orville Zeimers of Stoutsville. The evening was spent visiting and Roger Gobel, daughter Pam, entertained with playing the piano.

Mishap Brings Big Damage Suit

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP)—The Tappan Co. of Ontario, Ohio, was named in a $1 million suit filed Monday by a Stamford woman who claims she was injured by her dishwasher.

Beverly L. Lawson charges that her dishwasher broke a drinking glass and sent pieces of it into one eye, causing extensive loss of sight. The accident occurred, she said, when she opened the dishwasher before it had finished its cycle to get a baby bottle.

The suit alleges that the Tappan Co. failed to provide protective devices that would have either prevented the glass from hitting a propeller-like arm at the bottom of the machine or stopped the motion when the door was opened.

Governor Wants Toll Freeze

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. Wendell Ford hopes to retain the tolls on the 40-mile Kentucky Turnpike from Elizabethtown to Louisville and use the proceeds to improve the highway.

Ordinarily the road would be toll-free in 1974 when the last bonds are paid. Congressional approval is needed to continue tolls.

Queen And Court Named At Annual Harvest Ball

The Marie L. Hamilton Assembly 170, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, held a Harvest Ball Friday evening at St. Philip's Episcopal Church Parish Hall, W. Mound St.

The hall was decorated in harvest style with streamers of brown, green and gold. Pumpkins, gourds, winter bouquets and fall motifs adorned walls and tables. The decorations were done by Miss Janalee Taylor and her committee.

Refreshments were served, buffet style, by the Misses Suzi Ervin, Meri Gay Wood, and their committee. Seventy-five girls and boys were in attendance.

Chaperones were Miss Jacqueline Layton, George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Litter. The Assembly held an election by secret ballot to elect a Harvest Queen and Court.

Miss Nanissa Anderson and Charles Taylor made the presentation at approximately 9:30 p.m. Taylor presented flowers to Miss Martha Dumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Dumm, Route 1, Laurelville, and Miss Nancy Clifton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clifton Circleville as second and first attendants respectively. Mr. Taylor then presented flowers and a crown to the Harvest Queen, Miss Kathleen Litter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Litter, Circleville.

Fred Archer, Circleville, was responsible for acquiring the bands for the dance and acted as both master of ceremonies and coordinator of both bands.

The first band to play was the "Iron Myst" composed of Jeff Knece, Brent Jones, and John Beck. The second band, "Amnesty" was composed of Skip McCabe, Jeff Walisa and Rick Smith.

The next project for the Assembly will be a Smorgasbord Dinner, open to the public, to be held Dec. 2nd, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Tickets may be purchased from any Rainbow Girl or at the door.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gobel and family of Williamsport were hosts to friends Friday night with a steak supper. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, Bruce, Eric and Marty of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Callihan, Kim and Joey of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Groves of Sugar Grove; Wannie Johnson and Orville Zeimers of Stoutsville. The evening was spent visiting and Roger Gobel, daughter Pam, entertained with playing the piano.

Mishap Brings Big Damage Suit

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP)—The Tappan Co. of Ontario, Ohio, was named in a $1 million suit filed Monday by a Stamford woman who claims she was injured by her dishwasher.

Beverly L. Lawson charges that her dishwasher broke a drinking glass and sent pieces of it into one eye, causing extensive loss of sight. The accident occurred, she said, when she opened the dishwasher before it had finished its cycle to get a baby bottle.

The suit alleges that the Tappan Co. failed to provide protective devices that would have either prevented the glass from hitting a propeller-like arm at the bottom of the machine or stopped the motion when the door was opened.

Governor Wants Toll Freeze

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. Wendell Ford hopes to retain the tolls on the 40-mile Kentucky Turnpike from Elizabethtown to Louisville and use the proceeds to improve the highway.

Ordinarily the road would be toll-free in 1974 when the last bonds are paid. Congressional approval is needed to continue tolls.

American History Essay Contest Scheduled By DAR

"A Patriot Of 1733" is the subject chosen for this year's American History Essay Contest sponsored annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Since its inception in 1956 this program has been designed to stimulate interest in young people and to present a challenge that will create desire to know, understand and appreciate their American heritage.

Fifth, sixth seventh and eighth grade students of Circleville and Pickaway County are eligible to compete. Each grade is judged separately on historical accuracy, adherence to the subject originality, interest, neatness, spelling and punctuation. Each essay must be handwritten. A typewritten copy may be included but is not required.

Students in the 5th and 6th grades should write 300-600 words. Those in 7th and 8th grades should write 600-1000 words. Overlength essays will be disqualified.

A bibliography of books pamphlets, letters or other research material used in writing the essay must be included. If personal family items are used, the name of the owner must be given.

All essays will be judged by Pickaway Plains Chapter DAR. Winning essays are sent to state judges, then to division judges and finally to a team of three non-DAR judges who pick the national winners.

The title of the essay, contestant's name and full home address with zip code, name of school, grade and name of sponsoring DAR chapter (Pickaway Plains) must be plainly written on the essay. Lack of these items will be cause for disqualification.

Entries must be received no later than Jan. 17, 1973. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Emerson Spicer, chairman, Pickaway Plains Chapter, DAR American History Essay Contest.

Doctor Attacks AMA Failures

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The American Medical Association is in trouble because of "far too much defection from our ranks" by disillusioned members, a doctor says.

Dr. Jack Schreiber of Canfield, Ohio, a delegate to the organization's biannual national convention, declared in an address Monday to the AMA's Council on Long-Range Planning (CLRP):

"An alarming number of our (AMA) members are turning to unionism, foundations, special societies, other organizations, or just folding up their tents and saying, 'The hell with it!'"

Instant cocoa mixes are usually a blend of cocoa, sugar, flavoring and sometimes nonfat dry milk.

"BIG BEAR REDUCES MEAT PRICES AGAIN!"

AS OF MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27 ALL BEEF STEAKS AND BEEF ROASTS WERE REDUCED UP TO 14c PER POUND.

THE LAST NOTICEABLE DROP IN CARCASS BEEF WAS AROUND THE LAST OF AUGUST AND THE FIRST PART OF SEPTEMBER. AT THAT TIME, BIG BEAR REDUCED ALL PRICES ON BEEF STEAKS AND ROASTS.

THE MARKET HAS HELD STEADY SINCE THEN UNTIL ABOUT THE FIRST OF NOVEMBER WHEN THE CARCASS BEEF PRICE DECLINED AGAIN.

BECAUSE OF THE COMPLICATED BEEF PRICING SYSTEM, ALL CUTS WILL NOT DECLINE THE SAME AMOUNT, BUT YOU WILL SEE DECREASES IN THE DIFFERENT CUTS UP TO 14c PER POUND.

STEAK CONTINENTAL

Economical gourmet fare that can be partially prepared up to 24 hours ahead of serving time. To complete your budget trimming meal, serve baked Maine Potatoes, a fresh green salad and Betty Brown Italian Bread — all sale items at Big Bear this week.

2 lb. (approx.) Beef Round Steak 1 Tsp. Salt
 3 Tbsp. Soy Sauce ½ Tsp. Pepper
 1 Tbsp. Food Club Salad Oil ½ Tsp. Oregano
 1 Tbsp. Food Club Tomato Paste ½ Tsp. Minced Garlic

Place meat on large piece of plastic wrap or foil. Mix remaining ingredients; brush both sides of meat with marinade. Fold wrap or foil over meat and seal securely. Refrigerate at least 5 hours. (Flavor improves with longer storage). About 15 minutes before serving, set oven control at broil and/or 550 degrees. Broil to rare or medium, do not over cook. Cut diagonally across grain into ¼ inch slices.

Letters To Santa

Dear Santa,
I am three years old. I live at Circleville, Ohio. I would like a train, some trucks, bowling pins, a ball and bat and some puzzles.
Leave Michael, my brother, something too.
Love,
Jeff Pyle
Circleville

Dear Santa,
I've been a good little girl. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. I want Mrs. Beasley for Christmas and a baby doll also. I want a tent and play house. Maybe some candy and cookies.

Love,
Tina Adams
3 years old
Kingston

Dear Santa,
I'm Troy Kneec and I live at Mead, Ohio. I've been a good boy. I want a boat, ball, cars and a car garage. Some cowboy guns and holsters. Please bring my sister Susie a pretty baby doll. I'll leave some cookies and milk.
Love,
Troy Kneec
Mead

come and leave me some toys. I want a baby doll, table and chairs, ironing board, blackboard and some ABC blocks.
I will be watching for you Christmas Eve. I will leave some milk and cookies for you and some carrots for your reindeer.
Love,
Stephanie Sue McCabe
Kingston

Dear Santa,
Bea Bea gun
Racing track
Baseball glove
Battles
Yours truly
Bobby Inlon
Sardinia, Ohio

Dear Santa Claus,
Please bring me a truck, kitty cat, and some little cars. I will be in bed asleep when you come. Bring my sister some toys, too. Remember all the other little boys and girls. My name is Kevin and I live in Kingston.
Kevin Adams
Kingston

Dear Santa,
My name is Kris and I'm 3 years old. I would like to have a Mrs. Beasley doll. I would like some new story books. Maybe I would like a new dress and a big Bible. Please bring my little sister Lori and Mommy and Dad something nice too.
Love,
Kris Justice
Kingston

Dear Santa,
I want a baby buggy, Snoopy toothbrush and a baby doll. I have been a good girl.
Page, my little sister, wants a doll and buggy. I go to Sunday School.
Love,
Angie Martin
Amanda

Dear Santa,
I'm 3 years old and I'm a good boy. I want a Snoopy sled, some trucks, story books and a big ball.
Eddie Lewis
Kingston

Dear Santa,
I have been good this year. I want a baby, candy and nuts. I will have some milk and cookies under the Christmas tree for you. My name is Chrissie Detillion.
Love, Chrissie
Kingston

Dear Santa,
My name is Kim and I'm three years old. I would like a Baby-Go-Bye. I would like a doll buggy. Also some dishes.
Santa, I will leave some cookies and hot chocolate for you.
Love,
Kim Parker
Chillicothe

Dear Santa,
My name is Stephanie Sue and I'm 2 years old. My mommy is writing this letter for me.
I have been a pretty good girl this year. I go to Sunday School and Mommy says if I behave in church that you will

Laird Says Only 10,000 Will Be Drafted By July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Tuesday that fewer than 10,000 men will be drafted in the next six months before Selective Service is phased out June 30 and the military shifts to an all-volunteer force.

Laird said there would be no draft calls in January and that inductions will be spread out between February and June 30.

At an unscheduled news conference, the secretary said he was confident of a smooth transition to an all-volunteer Army but he said he still expected some difficulties in recruiting enough men for the National Guard and Reserves once the pressure of the draft is ended.

The secretary said the armed forces had hoped to begin offering enlistment bonuses for the Guard and Reserves by Feb. 1 but Congress' failure to approve this program will not make this possible.

Unless the enlistment bonus is enacted, he said, Congress may have to authorize a limited draft for the Reserves after June 30 to insure they are kept up to strength.

Since the Pentagon began winding draft calls down, enlistments in the reserve forces have fallen drastically.

Laird recommended last year that Congress enact a bonus in-

Laird Says Only 10,000 Will Be Drafted By July

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Tuesday that fewer than 10,000 men will be drafted in the next six months before Selective Service is phased out June 30 and the military shifts to an all-volunteer force.
Laird said there would be no draft calls in January and that inductions will be spread out between February and June 30. The secretary said the armed forces had hoped to begin offering enlistment bonuses for the Guard and Reserves by Feb. 1 but Congress' failure to approve this program will not make this possible.
Unless the enlistment bonus is enacted, he said, Congress may have to authorize a limited draft for the Reserves after June 30 to insure they are kept up to strength.
Since the Pentagon began winding draft calls down, enlistments in the reserve forces have fallen drastically.
Laird recommended last year that Congress enact a bonus incentive program for the Reserves totaling $200 million for fiscal 1974. Under this program, a young man or woman signing up for a six-year enlistment in the Guard or Reserves would receive an $1,100 bonus.

Laird would not reveal who his successor would be, saying that would be announced by the President. However, he joked that while he may be a lame-duck secretary, he is "not a limping secretary of Defense."
His final 53 days in office will be busy ones as he prepares the new budget which he said would show a slight increase over the current $76.5 billion Pentagon budget.

New Zealand's horse players bet nearly $32 million at legal off-track counters during the latest racing season.

Views On TV - Radio

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Please Stand By" is the phrase generally used by a television network whose picture goes blotto. It also is the title of a new theatrical film that poses an intriguing question of the future.
First consider the distinct possibility that, a few years from now, most network television shows will be broadcast via domestic satellite. Then ask: Can this lead to electronic mischief?

"Please Stand By" says it sure can. U.S. satellite officials say it sure can't, at least not the way the film's plot line would have it.

The movie is about a group of technically expert radicals who interrupt a network's satellite transmission during the nightly news to beam a counter-culture message.

They do it with a stolen mobile television van supposedly equipped to beam a signal to satellites on station above the United States.

They roll their one-minute videotape message on the network's satellite frequency, then lower the antenna and roar off into the night, lest the Federal Communications Commission get a fix on them.

The counter-culture broadcasts begin and end with a deep voice intoning, "The airwaves belong to the people."

The film is underground in the sense that it didn't open at Radio City Music Hall. It's playing in Greenwich Village. It is a drawn-out, clumsy effort. But its premise is very, very funny.

"Please Stand By" was produced, directed and written by Jack and Joanna Milton, a young New York couple who put the thing together for about $100,000. It's their first feature film.

Milton says the idea of a satellite caper had its roots in the real-life takeover of a local television station here by some radical folk a few years ago. They were evicted after a brief on-air show.

That happened a few years ago, but the idea resurfaced with a space-age twist when Milton read a few articles about satellites.

"Then we thought of doing a story based on the premise: 'How can we do it (broadcast by satellite) without getting caught,'" the 32-year-old filmmaker said.

How did they research the idea of an illegal satellite signal?

"Well, actually the government puts out all the necessary information," Milton said. "They really do. We did all the research in the San Francisco public library."

Did the filming attract the FCC's attention?

"No, we didn't have any problems with them because the FCC, of course, wasn't aware of what we were doing," Milton laughed. "If they were aware, we probably would have had problems."

Now comes the bad news for prospective signal thieves. An expert at the Washington-based Communications Satellite Corp. (COMSAT) says there is no way one satellite signal can be totally displaced by another.

The expert, who declined to be identified, says the worst that would happen during such an electronic caper would be much video fuzz and audio garble on our sets at home.

Okay. But if Walter Cronkite is interrupted by a mysterious voice that says, "The airways belong to the people," there may be a congressional investigation or something.

Seek Court Rule On School Funds In Michigan

CINCINNATI (AP)—Officials of Detroit's financially-pinched public school system have been told to seek a district court order to compel Michigan to provide funds to keep the schools open.

The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals advised the officials in a written statement Monday that jurisdiction on the particular issue belongs to the U.S. District Court in Detroit.

The appellate court dismissed a motion filed here by Detroit school officials last week for the order.

Officials, who plan to close for eight weeks beginning Dec. 21, contend they lack sufficient funds to maintain classes for the 180 days required by the state this school year.

The city has already borrowed $22 million from local banks to keep classes going until Dec. 1. Officials say the system will run up an $80 million debt if forced to operate a full school year on current funds.

Yearners For Moonshine Can Now Buy It Legally

By BETTY MILLS
Associated Press Writer
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—If you're yearning for that good ol' moonshine, no longer do you have to sneak down to a still hidden from the revenuers in some hollow; you can just visit your local state liquor store.

The West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Commission (ABCC) has recently stocked several of its stores with two brands of old fashioned white corn whiskey, "guaranteed to be less than 30 days old."

"One of the main reasons we decided to put it on the shelves," according to ABCC commissioner Richard Barber, "is that many people just like the taste of moonshine. We had quite a bit of demand for it."

The whiskey can be inhaled without feeling the after-effects of the home-brewed variety, Barber said.

"That stuff can make you blind or kill you if it's not good quality," Barber said. "I would certainly hope our stocking the stuff will cut down on any deaths or blindness."

Nixon Planning Mideast Tour, Report Claims

BEIRUT (AP) — President Nixon will visit Egypt and Israel next spring. A Beirut newspaper An Nahar reported Tuesday from Washington.

The paper said Nixon, in making the trip, hoped to enter history as "a man of peace in the Middle East" as well as Vietnam. It added that he could also be motivated by an increasing U.S. need for Arab oil.

The report said White House experts were drafting a timetable for peace in the Middle East in which the President's visit would figure prominently.

But more fighting along the Golan Heights, Egypt's return to a war of attrition along the Suez Canal and increased Soviet military aid to Syria could sidetrack the U.S. plan, An Nahar said.

U.S. And Cuba Talk On Skyjacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations are under way between the United States and Cuba on ways of resolving an air hijacking problem that causes difficulties for both countries.

Since there are no diplomatic relations between the U.S. and Cuba, the U.S. side of the negotiations in Havana is being represented by the Swiss ambassador in Cuba. There have not been negotiations on substantive matters between Cuba and the United States since 1961.

The State Department here said Monday it had its first report from the ambassador concerning an initial meeting with the Cubans. A spokesman described it as a preliminary discussion and an exchange of views on the situation.

State Department Press Officer John King said the discussions probably will continue for some time and that few details will be announced here while they are in progress.

Hold Judge's Son On Narcotics Rap

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Customs agents report they have seized 350 pounds of hashish and arrested a Superior Court judge's 30-year-old son on charges of illegal importation of the narcotic.

Agents disclosed Monday that Jonathan L. Cook was arrested after he picked up an air shipment of Indian moon bells at the San Francisco International Airport and took them to Santa Rosa.

Cook, son of Alameda County Superior Court Judge Lyle E. Cook, was released on his own recognizance after being arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Owen E. Woodruff. A further hearing will be held Dec. 8.

Customs agents estimated the hashish would be worth $1.5 million if sold on the street. They said trained detector dogs sniffed out the drug hidden in the 25 cartons of brass bells and the cartons were revealed to await a pickup.

Radio Transmitters Help In Surgery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Tiny radio transmitters will let doctors know how their spinal correction surgery is mending spine doctors begin using a device under development here at Rainbow Hospital's Youth Spine Center.

The radio units are built into steel rods which are used to support the spine after operations to correct spinal curvatures and will let doctors keep tabs on the amount of stress upon the rod.

The two brands sold in about 60 ABC stores around the Mountain State are Booneshine, a 100-proof whiskey manufactured in Cincinnati, and Georgia Moon, an 86-proof variety produced in the Peach State. Booneshine, sold in pint package, retails at $2.66, while Georgia Moon comes in a bottle shaped like a fruit-jar that holds a fifth and costs $4.41. "It's distilled just like regular whiskey," Barber said. "The big difference is that white whiskey isn't put in charred barrels to age. Supposedly the longer whiskey ages, the smoother it gets." Both brands are guaranteed to be less than 30 days old, according to the labels. Barber said the moonshine has been selling quite rapidly, an average of 70 cases a month of both brands. "We're having a problem keeping a good stock on it, because of the suppliers not having enough." Barber confessed he had never tried the ABC-sold moonshine, saying "it's pretty rough to drink. But some people just crave it." He estimated the price is about double what one would pay for homemade moonshine but said he believed it was worth the extra expense to know it is safe to drink.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Murderers are better parole risks than the general run of criminals, the National Council on Crime and Delinquency has reported.

The council, sponsoring a two-day conference of 55 parole agencies, said Monday that its team which conducted a five-year research program now has a national research population of 6,903 paroled killers on which to base its parole findings.

Yearners For Moonshine Can Now Buy It Legally

By BETTY MILLS
Associated Press Writer
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—If you're yearning for that good ol' moonshine, no longer do you have to sneak down to a still hidden from the revenuers in some hollow; you can just visit your local state liquor store.

The West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Commission (ABCC) has recently stocked several of its stores with two brands of old-fashioned white corn whiskey, "guaranteed to be less than 30 days old."

"One of the main reasons we decided to put it on the shelves," according to ABCC commissioner Richard Barber, "is that many people just like the taste of moonshine. We had quite a bit of demand for it."

The whiskey can be inhaled without feeling the after-effects of the home-brewed variety, Barber said.

"That stuff can make you blind or kill you if it's not good quality," Barber said. "I would certainly hope our stocking the stuff will cut down on any deaths or blindness."

Nixon Planning Mideast Tour, Report Claims

BEIRUT (AP) — President Nixon will visit Egypt and Israel next spring. A Beirut newspaper An Nahar reported Tuesday from Washington.

The paper said Nixon, in making the trip, hoped to enter history as "a man of peace in the Middle East" as well as Vietnam. It added that he could also be motivated by an increasing U.S. need for Arab oil.

The report said White House experts were drafting a timetable for peace in the Middle East in which the President's visit would figure prominently.

But more fighting along the Golan Heights, Egypt's return to a war of attrition along the Suez Canal and increased Soviet military aid to Syria could sidetrack the U.S. plan, An Nahar said.

U.S. And Cuba Talk On Skyjacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations are under way between the United States and Cuba on ways of resolving an air hijacking problem that causes difficulties for both countries.

Since there are no diplomatic relations between the U.S. and Cuba, the U.S. side of the negotiations in Havana is being represented by the Swiss ambassador in Cuba. There have not been negotiations on substantive matters between Cuba and the United States since 1961.

The State Department here said Monday it had its first report from the ambassador concerning an initial meeting with the Cubans. A spokesman described it as a preliminary discussion and an exchange of views on the situation.

State Department Press Officer John King said the discussions probably will continue for some time and that few details will be announced here while they are in progress.

Hold Judge's Son On Narcotics Rap

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Customs agents report they have seized 350 pounds of hashish and arrested a Superior Court judge's 30-year-old son on charges of illegal importation of the narcotic.

Agents disclosed Monday that Jonathan L. Cook was arrested after he picked up an air shipment of Indian moonshine at the San Francisco International Airport and took them to Santa Rosa.

Cook, son of Alameda County Superior Court Judge Lyle E. Cook, was released on his own recognizance after being arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Owen E. Woodruff. A further hearing will be held Dec. 8.

Customs agents estimated the hashish would be worth $1.5 million if sold on the street. They said trained detector dogs sniffed out the drug hidden in the 25 cartons of brass bells and the cartons were resealed to await a pickup.

Radio Transmitters Help In Surgery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Tiny radio transmitters will let doctors know how their spinal correction surgery is mending once doctors begin using a device under development here at Rainbow Hospital's Youth Spine Center.

The radio units are built into steel rods which are used to support the spine after operations to correct spinal curvatures and will let doctors keep tabs on the amount of stress upon the rod.

The two brands sold in about 60 ABC stores around the Mountain State are Booneshine, a 100-proof whiskey manufactured in Cincinnati, and Georgia Moon, an 86-proof variety produced in the Peach State. Booneshine, sold in pint package, retails at $2.66, while Georgia Moon comes in a bottle shaped like a fruit-jar that holds a fifth and costs $4.41. "It's distilled just like regular whiskey," Barber said. "The big difference is that white whiskey isn't put in charred barrels to age. Supposedly the longer whiskey ages, the smoother it gets." Both brands are guaranteed to be less than 30 days old, according to the labels. Barber said the moonshine has been selling quite rapidly, an average of 70 cases a month of both brands. "We're having a problem keeping a good stock on it, because of the suppliers not having enough." Barber confessed he had never tried the ABC-sold moonshine, saying "it's pretty rough to drink. But some people just crave it." He estimated the price is about double what one would pay for homemade moonshine but said he believed it was worth the extra expense to know it is safe to drink.

Local Governments Told Few Strings On Tax Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Local governments can do pretty much as they please with their federal revenue sharing funds, as long as they tell the federal government about it, Ohio county commissioners were told Tuesday. Naake told the commissioners and engineers that the first revenue-sharing checks for the first half of 1972 will be sent out Dec. 7. The money or the second half of this year go out in January and after that the checks will be mailed quarterly, he said. Naake said the money must go into a trust fund as soon as it is received to assure that proper records are kept on the interest it draws and how it is used. If local governments fail to inform the federal government by March 1, 1974, on how the money has been used or committed, they could lose 10 percent of it in fines, Naake added. He said the only other restrictions on the use of the money are that it can't be spent on education, general administration or as matching funds to obtain more federal grants. Naake said the program will mean an additional $30.1 billion for local governments around the country over the next five years and eventually should undergo a "gigantic expansion." The convention continues through Thursday.

Fellowship

Warren R. Hofman, M.D., of Ashville, has been named a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians. The degree of fellowship is an acknowledgement of successful completion of 600 or more hours of accredited continuing medical study, or attainment of diplomate status in the specialty of family medicine as a result of passing a certifying examination administered under the aegis of the American Board of Family Practice.

Fellowship entitles the conferee to use the title, "Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians," or "FAAFP." The degree was conferred September 28th upon more than 4,200 members of the Academy in conjunction with the AAFP's annual convention, and scientific assembly in New York City. Ceremonies were held in Madison Square Garden's Felt Forum before more than 10,500 persons. Fellowship candidates wore academic robes, with hoods bearing the blue and gold Academy colors, and mortarboard caps. The oath of fellowship was eiled en masse.

The American Academy of Family Physicians, representing more than 32,000 family doctors, is the only national medical group requiring members to take continuing study. Its members must take a minimum of 150 accredited hours every three years. Headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., the AAFP is observing its twenty-fifth anniversary this year. It is the largest of medicine's specialty groups.

SALT Talks Said

Moving Briskly

GENEVA (AP) — The U.S. and Soviet delegations Tuesday held their third meeting in the new secret Strategic Arms Limitation Talks amid indications of a brisk negotiating pace.

U.S. Ambassador Gerard Smith and his Soviet counterpart, Vladimir Semenov, joined by about 15 others on each side, met for an hour and 40 minutes in the Soviet mission. It was the longest meeting so far in the new SALT phase aimed at limiting offensive nuclear weapons.

A conference source disclosed that working groups will start this week "on various issues" including one setting forth the terms of reference of the standing consultative commission provided under the first SALT accords limiting antiballistic missiles.

Business Briefs

William J. Bresler of Circleville Realty, Circleville, attended the annual Advisory Board Meeting of the Lightning Rod Mutual Insurance Company — a member of the Western Reserve Group of Wooster.

The 12 man Advisory Board was formed in 1969 with the purpose of offering a direct line of communication between agency representatives and Company officials.

Saltcreek Grange Program Scheduled

"Let's Think About Christmas" is the theme of the program for the Saltcreek Valley Grange meeting to be held December 5. The annual carry-in dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by the business session and the lecturer program.

Included in the program will be original poems by the members relating to the holiday season. The closing section will be the gift exchange by all members and guests present.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state Wildlife Division says Ohio hunters are out in force this season and harvested at least 1,361 deer on the first day of the season Monday.

Fans To See Familiar Faces
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Cincinnati area football fans will be looking for two familiar faces when the New York Giants make their first appearance here Sunday against the Cincinnati Bengals.
They are Joe Morrison, a former player at the University of Cincinnati, now in his 14th year with the Giants, and defensive line coach Jim Katcavage, a product of the University of Dayton.
Bengals linebackers Ken Avery, who came to Cincinnati from the Giants, called Morrison "the most important man" in the Giants organization.
Morrison, who showed his versatility early at Cincinnati playing quarterback, fullback and halfback, has played almost every position for the Giants, within his specialty.
"Joe is just a peach of a guy," Avery said. "He and Vince Costello—now a Bengals coach—helped me as a rookie, Vince on the playing field, Joe as far as developing character and class."
"Morrison is the most versatile guy on the team and always has been. Whenever they needed someone, his name was the first to pop up. I think he could play defensive tackle if they needed him."
Morrison has been a running back, wide receiver, quarterback and even safety with the Giants. Now he is playing on special teams.
"Another real good guy with the Giants is their defensive line coach, Jim Katcavage," Avery said.

Ohio University won its first Mid-American Conference basketball game of the season Tuesday night, but Coach Jim Snyder wasn't happy.
"We couldn't sustain a lead," Snyder said after his Bobcats squeaked out an 86-84 victory over Central Michigan in overtime. "We would get five or six points ahead but could never put it away."
Ohio, favored to finish on top of the MAC standings, saw a six-point lead disappear in the second half as Central Michigan, playing for the first time in the league, surged to knot it 73-73 at the end of regulation play.
The two teams were deadlocked 84-84 with just 14 seconds remaining in the overtime period when freshman guard Walt Luckett stole a pass and drove three-quarters the length of the court to sink the winning basket for the Bobcats.
Ohio Center Denny Rusch, a 6-foot-8 junior, netted a game-high 27 points and led all rebounders with 22. Guard Ben Kelso paced Central with 24 points.
Toledo, playing outside the MAC, came within a whisker of upsetting tough Michigan State after charging back from a 16-point deficit.
"It was disappointing," Rockets Coach Bob Nichols said of the 98-96 loss. But he added, "I was kind of proud of them. I think it was a great comeback."
Down 55-41 at halftime, Toledo fought back to take the lead briefly, 80-79, with 6:55 left in the game. But then 6-8 center Tom Kozelko who had 24 points, fouled out and the Spartans took charge again.
Nichols said Kozelko fouling out "definitely hurt us offensively. We were struggling for points after that."

Meanwhile, Miami rolled over non-conference foe Cleveland State 83-59, and Coach Darrell Hedric was all smiles.
Hedric said guard Phil Lumpkin, the mainstay ball-handler for the Redskins who has seven points and 11 assists, "is just the kind of player I want. He's smart. He settles us down and keeps us going."
In other Ohio college action, Baldwin Wallace whipped Walsh 79-65 behind Dean Martin's 28-point performance, scoring with 13 points. Cleveland State was paced by Pat Lyons with 17.

Kim Essenburg led Miami in point performance, scoring with 13 points. Cleveland State was paced by Pat Lyons with 17.

Area Cage Squads In League Action

Logan Elm cagers will see double duty while Teays Valley and Westfall will only go to the boards once in county action this week.
The Braves will be at Unioto Friday night and at Franklin Heights in a Saturday night encounter. The Vikings will host West Jefferson and the Mustangs will be on the road at Paint Valley in Friday night tilts.
Coach Dave Little will be sending his Braves after their third straight win of the season at Unioto. Logan Elm holds wins over Zane Trace and Teays Valley in its first two outings.
The Braves will be seeking a win in their opening Scioto Valley Conference encounter against Unioto.

HOWEVER the Braves will have their work cut out for them as the Shermans are always tough on their hardwood floor.
Saturday night will find the Braves going against Franklin Heights in a non league encounter on the Falcons' court. Once again it will be the deadly duo, Tim Justice and Tom Sykes, who will set the Braves offense in motion and pepper the hoop from all angles.
But Coach Little has depth and balance on the squad and most of the Braves can be counted on to see plenty of action.
Teays Valley will be going after its second Metropolitan League victory against West Jefferson. The Vikings downed Franklin Heights last week.
The Vikings will be meeting a big ball club with all five starters for the Roughriders topping the 6-foot mark.

Piranha Team Sets Workouts

The Circleville "Piranha" Swim Team, 1972 Mt. Pleasant Swim League Champions, are preparing to embark on their winter workouts, with their second championship in a row as their goal.
"Land Exercises" are scheduled to start on Monday at the Pickaway County YMCA, with water practices to start January 13 at the Chillicothe YMCA Pool.
Team officials, in an effort to bolster all age groups, will hold a special meeting for all boys and girls age 7 thru 17 who desire to join the team Sunday in the Municipal Court Room in the City Building. The meeting is set to start at 4 p.m. Each swimmer desiring to join the team is requested to bring one or both parents to the meeting.
"Although we have a team of championship caliber at the present time," team coaches state, "we must always think of the future and must always attempt to secure new members for the team."
Boys and girls are needed for all of the following age groups: 8 and under; 9 and 10; 11 and 12; 13 and 14; 15 thru 17.
Team coaches for the coming year will be: Jim Shea, head coach... Dick Penn, coach of 8 and under swimmers and Alan Krieger, assistant coach and B. Squad Coach.

MORRIS 6-foot-3, and Thompson, 6-foot-2 are the key men in the West Jeff offense and both can put points on the board.
"West Jefferson lost most of last year's squad through graduation but always seem to be tough when they go against us," Viking coach Bob Hoover commented.
"We feel we have a good chance at the Metro title and this is an important game as it will give us two wins without a loss," Hoover stated.
On defense the Roughriders will use a 2-3 zone and a 2-2-1 zone press in an effort to contain the Vikings.
The Vikings will go to their pattern offense and will utilize a man to man defense.
The starting lineup for the Vikings will be: Craig Pontius and Terry Lambert at the guards, Jim Logsdon at center with Jerry Sabine and Jeff Anderson at the forwards.
AFTER losing their first three games, the Mustangs are hard at work making adjustments and changes in an effort to add some scoring punch and correcting turnovers which have plagued them in their last two encounters.
Coach Jeff Bigam will not make a decision on his starting lineup until Friday.
The Mustangs suffered another setback when Mike Peterson, top rebounder on the club, came up with torn ligaments in his knee. His status for Friday night remains in doubt.
Paint Valley lost all five starters from last year's team and lack experience.
However, they have a talented sophomore in Mick Shoemaker who is a fine scorer and several other boys who are good shooters.

McDowell Cagers Capture Pair From Pickerington

McDowell seventh and eighth grade cage squads both came up with victories over Pickerington in a pair of tilts Tuesday on the Logan Elm floor.
The McDowell seventh graders trailed 8-4 at the end of the first period, were behind 11-6 at the half, held the short end of a 21-18 count at the conclusion of the third quarter but came on strong in the fourth frame to grab the victory, 31-27.
Tony Crist hooped 21 points, Jeff Collins added seven and Rock Huggins three to account for all of the Braves' tallies.
The eighth graders of McDowell held an 8-4 lead at the finish of the first quarter, were on top 14-6 at the half led 20-14 at the end of the third frame and held their lead to gain the win, 31-24.
Randy Pontius paced the McDowell cagers with 10 tallies, Mark Skinner had eight, Mike Patrick, five while Steve Bowling and Chuck Cave each hooped four.
Both squads are now 1-0 and will be at Canal Winchester Thursday.
City Pin Deadline
The deadline for the Lancaster Women's Bowling Association City Tournament is midnight Saturday.

OSU's Linebackers Win Recognition
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rick Middleton, an optimistic soul, figured Michigan had "only four chances" to go one yard for a touchdown that would have meant a Big Ten title and Rose Bowl trip.
Middleton and his fellow Ohio State linebackers, Randy Gradishar and Arnie Jones, succeeded, leading the Buckeye defense to its second superb goal line stand in a 14-11 triumph Saturday.
The victory gave Ohio State a co-title with Michigan and a Rose Bowl berth and the line-backing trio The Associated Press National College Line-man of the Week honors.
Jack Lambert Wins Top MAC Honors
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Kent State linebacker Jack Lambert's brilliant performances in the last two games of the season have earned him the Mid-American Conference defensive player of the year honors.
Lambert, a 6-foot-5, 208-pound junior from Mantua, Ohio, edged Western Michigan's Dom

Viking Juniors Cop Two Tilts From Westfall

Teays Valley's seventh and eighth grade basketball teams both came up with wins over Westfall Tuesday on the Vikings' court.
The seventh grade Vikings downed the little Mustangs 34-22 in the season opener. Westfall led 10-5 at the end of the first quarter but the Vikings rallied for a 17-12 lead at halftime, lead 28-15 at the conclusion of the third canto and came home with a 34-22 win.
Ron Little paced Teays Valley with 16 points, Bill Dowell added eight, Dwayne Hettinger six while Dennis Werner and Rick Queen each had two.
Mowery led the Westfall scoring with 11 tallies.
The eighth grade Vikings nipped the Mustangs, 34-30.
After battling a 6-6 score at the end of the first period, the Vikings jumped out to a 18-10 lead at halftime, were out in front 28-22 at the finish of the third frame and held on for a 34-30 victory.
Charles Morrison hooped 13 points, Jeff Voss had eight, Tim Tosca seven, Gregg Cline four and Terry Trego added two for the Vikings totals.
Long netted 12 and Schleich eight to pace the Westfall cagers.
The Teays Valley eighth graders are now 1-0 and will be at Reynoldsburg Dec. 7.
Name Franco Harris Best Of Offense
NEW YORK (AP) — The game was tied 10-10 in the fourth quarter when quarterback Terry Bradshaw handed the ball to Franco Harris.
Smart move. He wound up dashing 61 yards—within one of a touchdown—before two Minnesota defenders hauled him down. One play later, Bradshaw bulldozed over for the touchdown that sent the Steelers on the way to a "must win" last Sunday, a 23-10 triumph over the Vikings, who needed it just as much.
A better indication—and the one that won him the selection today as The Associated Press Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League—was the 128 yards he rolled up against the tough Minnesota defense, 12 of them coming on a first-quarter touchdown sweep.
Riggio, Lambert polled 18 votes to 14 for Riggio in the Mid-American News Media Association balloting.

Area Cage Squads In League Action

Logan Elm cagers will see double duty while Teays Valley and Westfall will only go to the boards once in county action this week.

The Braves will be at Unioto Friday night and at Franklin Heights in a Saturday night encounter. The Vikings will host West Jefferson and the Mustangs will be on the road at Paint Valley in Friday night tilts.

Coach Dave Little will be sending his Braves after their third straight win of the season at Unioto. Logan Elm holds wins over Zane Trace and Teays Valley in its first two outings.

The Braves will be seeking a win in their opening Scioto Valley Conference encounter against Unioto.

Piranha Team Sets Workouts

The Circleville "Piranha" Swim Team, 1972 Mt. Pleasant Swim League Champions, are preparing to embark on their winter workouts, with their second championship in a row as their goal.

"Land Exercises" are scheduled to start on Monday at the Pickaway County YMCA, with water practices to start January 13 at the Chillicothe YMCA Pool.

Team officials, in an effort to bolster all age groups, will hold a special meeting for all boys and girls age 7 thru 17 who desire to join the team Sunday in the Municipal Court Room in the City Building. The meeting is set to start at 4 p.m. Each swimmer desiring to join the team is requested to bring one or both parents to the meeting.

"Although we have a team of championship caliber at the present time," team coaches state, "we must always think of the future and must always attempt to secure new members for the team."

Boys and girls are needed for all of the following age groups: 8 and under; 9 and 10; 11 and 12; 13 and 14; 15 thru 17.

Team coaches for the coming year will be: Jim Shea, head coach... Dick Penn, coach of 8 and under swimmers and Alan Krieger, assistant coach and B.

Major League Trades Still Hot And Heavy

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — After hooking five players in the biggest deal thus far at the trade-happy winter baseball meetings, General Manager Harry Dalton of the California Angels announced that he was still fishing.

"Just because we made this deal, it doesn't mean that we have everything we need," said Dalton. "We still have to fill a few more positions. And we can still use more hitting."

The Angels did all right, though, in the hitting department by acquiring slugger Frank Robinson from the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday in a seven-player deal that kept trading activity here at a roller coaster pace.

The seventh deal of the young meetings sent Robinson, pitchers Bill Singer and Mike Strahler and infielders Bobby Valentine and Billy Grabarkewitz from Los Angeles to California for pitcher Andy Messersmith and third baseman Ken McMullen.

A total of 28 players have changed uniforms since the free-wheeling general managers got things started Saturday.

And, according to Dalton, there's more dealing in store before the 71st annual affair locks up this weekend.

"We're still talking to a couple of clubs," said Dalton, who helped build a Baltimore Orioles powerhouse before moving to the Angel organization last year.

Tuesday's trade reunites Dalton with Robinson, an All-Star outfielder he pried loose from the Cincinnati Reds when Dalton was director of player personnel at Baltimore.

While Robinson will split his time between left field and first base on the Angels, Singer will move right into Messersmith's spot in the starting rotation. Bothered by injuries in recent seasons, the right-hander is one of the hardest throwers in the big leagues and once had a 20-game-winning year and a no-hitter.

Valentine and Grabarkewitz, among the Dodgers' prized baby brigade, can play most of the infield positions.

Strahler, another of the coveted Dodger babies, could be "a sleeper in the deal," said Dalton.

The main man, though, for Dalton was Robinson. Dalton tried to acquire him from the Orioles last year, but the Dodgers beat him to the punch.

If Dalton was happy to get Robinson, then the Dodgers were just as thrilled to get the much-sought - after Messersmith. Los Angeles, along with several other clubs have been making overtures for him.

Messersmith won 20 games for the Angels in 1971, but slumped to an 8-11 record last season while spending six weeks on the disabled list with an injured finger. But his earned run average was below the three-run level, the mark of a good pitcher. Lifetime, he's fashioned a 2.77 ERA.

Along with a certain starter, the Dodgers acquired a third baseman who can field and hit. The Dodgers needed both.

Ohio Conference Stars Selected

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP) — Champion Heidelberg College placed eight players to lead the 29-man Ohio Conference all-star football squad released today.

Heading the offensive unit is Ed Exler of Denison, the conference's top rusher (131.5 yards per game) and scorer (9.5-point average), and Heidelberg quarterback Jim Ruth, the OC's total offense leader.

Otis Armstrong Wins AP Honors Again
By HERSCHEL NISSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Otis Armstrong, Purdue's star running back, just keeps getting better.

Five weeks ago, Armstrong was named National College Football Player of the Week by The Associated Press after carrying the football 32 times for a school record 233 yards and two touchdowns against Northwestern.

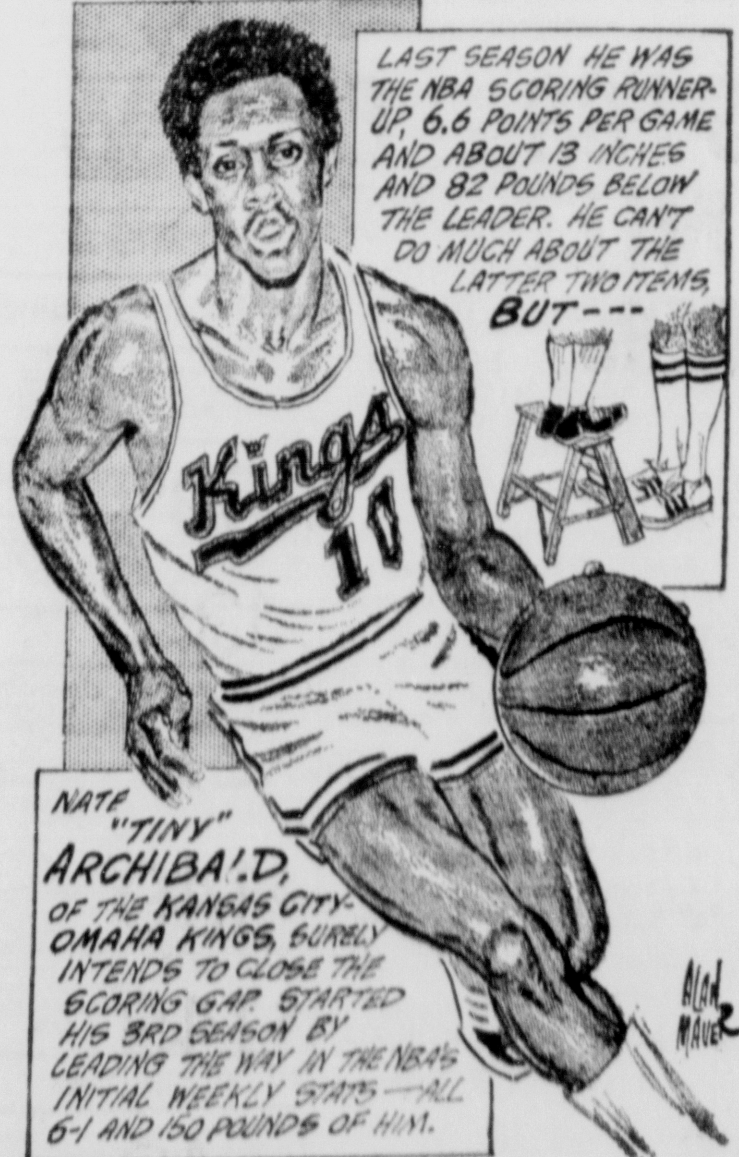

Saturday against Indiana he lugged it 32 more times, gained 276 yards and scored three touchdowns. That performance earned him Back of the Week honors once more, the only two-time winner this season.

The 5-foot-11, 194-pound senior from Chicago scored on dashes of two, 71 and 53 yards as he not only broke his own single-game Purdue mark but also wound up his three-year career with 3,316 yards, erasing the previous Big Ten record of 3,232 set in four seasons by Wisconsin's Alan Ameche, and jumped from 16th to sixth on the all-time NCAA rushing list, passing such notables as Ameche, O.J. Simpson, Ollie Matson and Mike Garrett.

Racing Commission Plans 1973 Schedule
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Racing Commission meets Dec. 6 to work out the 1973 Ohio horse racing schedule.

Tracks around the state have submitted applications for permits to the commission that would result in a season pretty much like the 1972 schedule.

Major League Trades Still Hot And Heavy

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — After hooking five players in the biggest deal thus far at the trade-happy winter baseball meetings, General Manager Harry Dalton of the California Angels announced that he was still fishing.

"Just because we made this deal, it doesn't mean that we have everything we need," said Dalton. "We still have to fill a few more positions. And we can still use more hitting."

The Angels did all right, though, in the hitting department by acquiring slugger Frank Robinson from the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday in a seven-player deal that kept trading activity here at a roller coaster pace.

The seventh deal of the young meetings sent Robinson, pitchers Bill Singer and Mike Strahler and infielders Bobby Valentine and Billy Grabarkewitz from Los Angeles to California for pitcher Andy Messersmith and third baseman Ken McMullen.

A total of 28 players have changed uniforms since the free-wheeling general managers got things started Saturday.

And, according to Dalton, there's more dealing in store before the 71st annual affair locks up this weekend.

"We're still talking to a couple of clubs," said Dalton, who helped build a Baltimore Oriole powerhouse before moving to the Angel organization last year.

Tuesday's trade reunites Dalton with Robinson, an All-Star outfielder he pried loose from the Cincinnati Reds when Dalton was director of player personnel at Baltimore.

While Robinson will split his time between left field and first base on the Angels, Singer will move right into Messersmith's spot in the starting rotation. Bothered by injuries in recent seasons, the right hander is one of the hardest throwers in the big leagues and once had a 20-game-winning year and a no-hitter.

Valentine and Grabarkewitz, among the Dodgers' prized baby brigade, can play most of the infield positions.

Strahler, another of the coveted Dodger babies, could be "a sleeper in the deal," said Dalton.

The main man, though, for Dalton was Robinson. Dalton tried to acquire him from the Orioles last year, but the Dodgers beat him to the punch.

If Dalton was happy to get Robinson, then the Dodgers were just as thrilled to get the much-sought-after Messersmith. Los Angeles, along with several other clubs have been making overtures for him.

Messersmith won 20 games for the Angels in 1971, but slumped to an 8-11 record last season while spending six weeks on the disabled list with an injured finger. But his earned run average was below the three-run level, the mark of a good pitcher. Lifetime, he's fashioned a 2.77 ERA.

Along with a certain starter, the Dodgers acquired a third baseman who can field and hit. The Dodgers needed both.

Ohio Conference Stars Selected

NEW CONCORD, Ohio (AP)—Champion Heidelberg College placed eight players to lead the 29-man Ohio Conference all-star football squad released today.

Bloodmobile Gets 121 Units

The Red Cross Bloodmobile collected 121 units Tuesday at its November visit to Circleville. There were 128 persons registered.

Officials expressed appreciation to all who helped make the visit so nearly successful, just four units short of the quota.

The ladies of Trinity Lutheran Church provided food service. Those who worked were Mrs. Herman Will, Mrs. Walter Melvin, Mrs. Walter Eccard and Mrs. Sidney Sanders.

Red Cross volunteers assisting were: Mrs. Royce Woollever, Mrs. Robert Dahl, Mrs. Lewis Dean, Mrs. Winship Story, Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. Howard Huston, Mrs. Cyrus Dille, Mrs. Montford Kirkwood, Mrs. Keith Conrad, Mrs. Ben Brian, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Lowell Toland, Mrs. Ernest Young, Mrs. Walter Heine, Mrs. Harry Welch, and Mrs. William Seum.

Red Cross youth helping were Lori Owens, Kimberly Leist, Sara Seum, Tammy Tatman, May Grover, Bonnie Hall and Val Houser.

Assisting the loading and unloading of equipment were high school students Tom Frericks, John Ankrom, Dave Webb and Dave Pontius and Boy Scouts Rodney Leist, Jeff Hipp, Brent Smith and Clark Huskey, assisted by William Seum Jr.

Hanoi Claims B52 Attacks Wiped Out District Town

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers kept up their heavy attack on both sides of the demilitarized zone today, and Hanoi charged that raids on Monday virtually wiped out a district town in North Vietnam. The civilian death toll from a mistaken U.S. bombing attack Tuesday 15 miles south of Da Nang rose to 21, the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported. Another 23 civilians were reported wounded and 80 homes destroyed or badly damaged. The U.S. Command said the attack by six American jets is under investigation.

About 50 B52s pounded North Vietnamese supply caches, staging areas and troop concentrations on both sides of the DMZ, the U.S. Command said.

Field reports said heavy monsoon rains had slowed ground fighting in Quang Tri province, where South Vietnamese marines and paratroopers are trying to widen their territorial control. The Saigon command said 13 North Vietnamese and three government troops were killed in clashes Tuesday to the north and south of Quang Tri City, and 12 government troops were wounded.

Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency claimed that a B52 attack on Monday "destroyed almost all the schools, hospital and houses of the people" in the town of Muong Xen, in central Nghe An Province.

Radio Hanoi also claimed that a U.S. A6 fighter-bomber was shot down Tuesday in Thanh Hoa Province, just below the 20th parallel. It made no mention of the fate of the two crewmen.

The U.S. Command reported that a Navy A6 crashed into the Tonkin Gulf Tuesday after a mechanical failure while taking off from the carrier Saratoga en route to a bombing mission. The Command said one man was rescued about 80 miles east of Dong Hoi, but the second crewman was missing and believed killed.

K Of P Sets Election Of Officers

The second nomination and election of officers will be held Monday by Philos Lodge 64, Knights of Pythias, it has been announced by Tracy DeLong, chancellor commander.

Officers nominated are: James Riley, chancellor commander; Walden Reichelderfer, vice chancellor, Charles Winter, prelate; Tracy DeLong, master of work; O. E. Barr, secretary; Raymond Reichelderfer, financial secretary; Clarence Radcliffe, treasurer; David Blue, master of arms; Kenneth Graf, inner guard; Steve Jones, outer guard; Milo Wise, trustee; Doyle Spangler, representative to Grand Lodge; Clarence Radcliffe, alternate.

In addition there will be an election for grand secretary of the Grand Lodge. Only past chancellors may vote for grand lodge officers. A district 11 meeting will be held. This includes lodges in Pickaway, Madison, and Franklin Counties. All members are urged to attend especially the past chancellors, DeLong said.

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Skies cleared overnight, but clouds began returning to northern counties toward dawn. Temperatures at dawn were in the low to mid 20s over most of the state. Toledo was high with a reading of 29.

Most of southern Ohio received its first measurable snowfall of the season Tuesday with amounts ranging from one to three inches. Cincinnati reported two inches, Columbus one inch and Zanesville three inches.

Cloudy skies were forecast for northern Ohio today, while some sunshine was expected in the south. Highs were forecast from the upper 20 to mid 30 this afternoon, compared with readings from 32 at Dayton and Cincinnati Tuesday.

Cloudy skies are forecast across the state tonight as a low pressure trough approaches. Lows will be in the 20s. Highs Thursday will be a bit warmer, with readings in the 30s and low 40s expected.

FORECAST

WEST CENTRAL, CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST — Cloudy tonight and Thursday.

Defer Sentence In Tax Evasion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sentencing of a Steubenville grocer who pleaded guilty to tax evasion was deferred by U.S. District Judge Joseph Kinneary Tuesday pending receipt of a probation report.

Stanley E. Babicz, 56, pleaded guilty to evading taxes for the year 1968. The government in turn dropped charges of tax evasion for the years 1965 through 1967.

Babicz reported taxable income of $3,637 and paid a tax of $598 for 1968, but the Internal Revenue Service said he had taxable income of $6,750 and should have paid $1,228.

The windfall of income tax payments has meant an extra load of work for a department Kosydar maintains is already understaffed, but he said the real manpower problems will begin in January when individuals start filing returns.

"We expect 4 million returns to be filed in January," Kosydar said. "It's a simple return, just a card. But like any new return there will be questions."

Kosydar said he's arranging for state officials to be present in all 88 Ohio county courthouses and in municipal buildings to help taxpayers with problems.

For the extra work in Columbus, Kosydar says he's been hiring temporary help in peak periods and shuffling full-time personnel around to keep ahead of the crush.

"It's kind of hectic, but we've been managing so far," he said.

"We will have to reallocate our resources between January and April," he added. "We'll have to hold back in sales and property taxes, but there shouldn't be any loss of revenues in those areas. It's just that some audits will be delayed."

Kosydar said he has been talking with Gov. John Gilligan about adding more people to the Department of Taxation staff.

He said Gilligan was especially interested in beefing up enforcement for corporation taxes.

"The governor feels that if individuals have their income tax withheld, then we ought to make a special effort to see that corporations pay their fair share," Kosydar said.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sub-zero temperatures put central Wyoming into a deep freeze early today as light snow swirled over the Northern states from the Rockies to New England.

Travel advisories were out for the mountains of eastern New York, all of Vermont and western Massachusetts.

Showers and thunderstorms marred fair weather in Florida, and extensive fog settled over the interior valleys of California and along the north Pacific Coast.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 7 below at Lander, Wyo., to 79 at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

This is why we believe you get more

Get your dollar's worth during "Dollar Watchers" Days
Today, more than ever before, dollar watchers are seeking a "dollar's worth" of value.

Budget conscious price? Of course! But it's what you get for the price that's important. Maytag builds extraordinary appliances . . . to give you extraordinary washing satisfaction and drying perfection. Couple these with proven Maytag dependability and you get a "Dollar Watcher" delight.

MAYTAG BIG CAPACITY WASHERS

Family Size Tub—built for big load cleaning . . . great for growing families!
Two Speed Operation (on most models) no nonsense cleaning power for normal washing. Gentle Wash, rinse and spin for special garments and fabrics.
Automatic Water Level Control — lets you match water level to size of load. Saves Water. Lint Filter.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

MAYTAG HALO-OF-HEAT® DRYERS

Surrounds clothes with gentle, even heat. No hot spots, no over-drying. Permanent Press Cycle. Full Opening Safety Door. Fine

MAYTAG PORTA-PAIR™

Stack 'em up...they'll store almost anywhere

You can have a complete portable laundry in your apartment or wherever space is a problem. The Maytag Porta-Washer and Porta-Dryer, plug into any standard 115 volt outlet. Just roll them out, wash and dry.

MAYTAG Food Waste DISPOSER

Grind all types of food waste from the toughest bone to the thinnest fibers—all to tiny uniform size for quick and efficient draining. Positive Pressure Water Seal protects against water leakage into motor area.

Replace your old dryer.

New Gas dryers have settings for today's new fabrics.
